THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 13:1-23

Sometimes I feel capable of absorbing almost anything except God's Word. My mind soaks up song lyrics, sports trivia, and endless online content. But what was the reading at Mass this morning? I struggle to recall. That realization discourages me, and it leads to an uncomfortable question. What is my heart really for? Is it shaped for constant information and distraction, or is it truly designed for God? Am I capable of deeply receiving His Word?

Jesus speaks directly to this today with a simple image. "The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it." By comparing the Word of the Kingdom to a seed, Jesus reveals something hopeful about us. The human heart is made for that seed. Soil and seed belong together. No matter how compacted, rocky, or overgrown the ground has become, the Sower never stops sowing.

God loves our hearts. He sees them as a farmer sees his fields, full of potential. Human hearts can indeed "understand the Word." Understanding does not mean mastering information. It means letting the Word sink in, interacting with it, and giving it a home. It means trusting that, beneath the surface, God is at work in quiet and hidden ways.

When we allow the Holy Spirit to loosen the soil of our hearts through prayer, repentance, and simplicity, the same Word that created the universe begins to bear fruit in us, thirty, sixty, even a hundredfold.

Lord Jesus, Sower of life, soften the soil of my heart. Let Your Word take root in me again, and bring forth the fruit You desire. Amen.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, July 19th

Wis 12:13, 16-19/Ps 86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16/Rom 8:26-27/Mt 13:24-43 or 13:24-30

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, July 19th

- Wisdom speaks of God's power in terms of kindness, leniency, and mercy. What words would you use to describe God?
- Paul explains that the Spirit intercedes on our behalf, especially when we struggle in our prayer life. How can the Spirit help you in your prayer life?
- In the parable of the weeds and the wheat, Jesus warns the disciples of the presence of the devil active in the world. How do we stay on guard against the evil one?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

SMALL GROUP FORMING FOR MOTHERS OF CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES

Hello! My name is Clare Zajicek, and my husband Ryan and I are blessed with four children. Our six year old has a rare genetic syndrome called Phelan-McDermid Syndrome. Through our family's journey, I've come to appreciate the unique joys, challenges, and graces that come with raising a child who has high support needs and is on a different developmental path.

I've started a new small group at St. Charles for mothers of children with disabilities or neurodivergence, and we gather twice a month for spiritual growth and support! Whether your child has a diagnosis or you're navigating an uncertain path, you are welcome. Please email me at clarezajicek@gmail.com if you'd like to join us!

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Kleenex, Toilet Paper, Ketchup, Mayonnaise, Saltine Crackers, Beef & Chicken Broth, Idaho Flavored Potatoes, Mustard

In the Gospel today on the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we hear the story of the sower and we know that "some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirty fold." The parable illustrates how the word of God can bear fruit when received with openness and perseverance. This week by making a donation to our general fund or donating to our food pantry, know that together they will produce fruit a hundred fold.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located on the Church grounds at 313 Circle Drive Hartland, and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5pm and 6:30pm. If you know someone in need of our services, please call us at 262-367-0800.
