THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 13:24-43

A man recently told me he was losing patience with the Church. "It's supposed to be God's Kingdom on earth," he said, "but it's full of contradictions and hypocrisy. Why can't the Church just be better?" That last word landed with a judgmental thud. It hurt. Because at times the Church can look painfully ordinary, even disappointing.

But Jesus' parables in today's Gospel meet that frustration head on. He says, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field," yet the weeds grow up with the wheat, and the master allows both to grow together until harvest. To his listeners, this sounded strange, even offensive. They expected God's reign to be pure, powerful, and glorious, anything but mixed up, hidden, or small.

Jesus is showing us something essential. The Kingdom always begins small and grows amid imperfection. Grace and weakness exist side by side until the harvest. That is why the Church often looks messy. Yet within that mess, God's quiet work continues. The weeds do not stop the wheat from growing.

When we see the Church's flaws or our own, it helps to remember that this is exactly the field in which Christ chose to plant. The miracle is not that everything looks perfect but that his Word keeps taking root anyway.

Lord, give me patience with Your field, the Church. Help me see Your hidden life growing even among the weeds. Amen.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, July 26th

1 Kgs 3:5, 7-12/Ps 119:57, 72, 76-77, 127-128, 129-130/Rom 8:28-30/Mt 13:44-52 or 13:44-46

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, July 26th

- The Lord grants Solomon's request to give him a wise and discerning heart so he can rule justly over the people of Israel. Have you ever had a wish come true?
- Paul speaks of God working with believers according to his purposes. How would you describe your purpose or passion in life?
- Jesus often speaks in parables about the kingdom of Heaven that invite you to imagine how God works in the world. Where do you see God at work in your family?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

SMALL GROUP FORMING FOR MOTHERS OF CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES

Hello! My name is Clare Zajicek, and my husband Ryan and I are blessed with four children. Our six year old has a rare genetic syndrome called Phelan-McDermid Syndrome. Through our family's journey, I've come to appreciate the unique joys, challenges, and graces that come with raising a child who has high support needs and is on a different developmental path.

I've started a new small group at St. Charles for mothers of children with disabilities or neurodivergence, and we gather twice a month for spiritual growth and support! Whether your child has a diagnosis or you're navigating an uncertain path, you are welcome. Please email me at clarezajicek@gmail.com if you'd like to join us!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Stove Top Stuffing, Chef Boyardee Lasagna, Chili (No Beans), Beets, Peas, Progresso and Campbell's Chunky Soups, Toilet Paper, Pears, Tuna

In today's Gospel on the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven to a little mustard seed that eventually grows into a large, flourishing plant. This parable teaches us about how God operates in our lives and the world around us. Just like the tiny seed that becomes something great, God's kingdom also expands quietly and consistently. We can trust that God knows our love and good deeds and that He will mercifully gather us into his kingdom.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located on the Church grounds at 313 Circle Drive Hartland, and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5pm and 6:30pm. If you know someone in need of our services, please call us at 262-367-0800.
