THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Luke 13:22-30

I've been hiking Camelback Mountain in Phoenix, Arizona most of my life. It is a vigorous forty-five minutes to the top. Near the peak, the end suddenly appears much further away and steeper. At that moment, a descending hiker often offers encouragement: "Keep going! The peak is right there. It's not as far as it looks. You can do it!" It usually works. After another five minute push, you summit and enjoy a glorious panorama of the Sonoran Desert in the Valley of the Sun.

When Jesus is asked about how many people are saved, he says, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate" (Luke 13:24). How many? Strive! Focus on your journey. What does heavenly census taking have to do with you or me? How would it help a hiker on a mountain to ask the others coming down, "How many people are going to make it to the top?" A normal response would be something like: "How is that a relevant question? Carry on!"

Jesus links one virtue directly to salvation: perseverance (cf. Matt 24:13; hypomone in Greek). Strive! Endure! Keep going! The one absolutely necessary virtue is perseverance, to not give up on our journey. The mountain we struggle to climb is often our own weakness, failures, and sins. Persevere in prayer. Keep celebrating the sacraments. Embrace daily duties. With God's grace, you are strong enough to keep going. Perhaps the peak is not as far away as you might fear. Keep going!

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, August 31st Readings

Sir 3:17-18, 20, 28-29/Ps 15:2-3, 3-4, 4-5 (1a)/Heb 12:18-19, 22-24a/Lk 14:1, 7-14

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, August 31st

- Sirach speaks of the virtue of humility and the wisdom of knowing one's limits. Can you think of a time when you needed to depend on others?
- The author of Hebrews speaks of our direct access to God through the new covenant established by Jesus. How might we take advantage of such a gift?
- With the parable of the wedding banquet, Jesus teaches the Pharisees to be open and even inviting to the poor and marginalized. How might you exercise this virtue in the coming week?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

BECOMING FULLY CATHOLIC
ST. CHARLES PARISH & SCHOOL

THE LORD IS CALLING YOU!

Did you miss the Becoming Fully Catholic Welcome Session on August 17th? No need to stress!

Fr. Aaron Siehr is looking forward to beginning classes on Sunday, September 21st from 10:15–11:45 a.m.

The BFC consists of gathering together as a group on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of each month from 10:15–11:45 a.m. with Fr. Aaron.

On the alternate Sundays, candidates and catechumens will meet one-on-one with their mentors at a time that works best for both.

Contact Fr. Aaron Siehr via email at asiehr@stcharleshartland.org or call 262-367-0800 with any questions.

MEET. KNOW. LOVE. SERVE.

How does the St. Charles community allow you to meet, know, love, and serve Christ?

"St. Charles gives me the opportunity to meet, know, love, and serve Christ in beautiful and meaningful ways. I meet Christ by spending time next to Jesus in the Adoration Chapel or the Sanctuary, where I love to stop by, say 'Hi' and 'Thank You' to Jesus, and simply be in His presence. My goal is to pray in God's house every day, and if I'm nearby, I always stop in; it fills me with incredible peace. I get to know Christ by asking questions and having conversations with my faith-filled friends from daily Mass and the Adult Choir. They help me to become more reverent and holy as well as ways that I can learn more about Scripture. Many have recommended the Becoming Fully Catholic seminars at St. Charles—not just for new Catholics but also for lifelong Catholics like me who still have so much to learn. I strive to love Christ by loving and praying for my family, friends, our priests, and all the amazing staff, ministers, and parishioners at St. Charles, supporting them in any way I can. And finally, my favorite part—serving Christ—happens through St. Charles' Music Ministry. Singing and playing music for God is one of the greatest joys; it's not only deeply meaningful, it's also SUPER FUN!"

- Amy Wieber

CHANCING THE NARROW GATE

From doctors to counselors, anthropologists to schoolteachers, it seems like everyone has their own parenting style to peddle, guaranteeing it will result in a happy and well-adjusted kid.

You've got "gentle parenting," predicated on respect for the child's feelings and needs. You've got "attachment parenting," based on the belief that kids need time to adjust to being outside of the womb. You've got "free-range parenting," where self-sufficiency reigns supreme.

But of all the parenting approaches I've come across, I've never encountered a philosophy that rejects discipline altogether. There are lots of conflicting opinions on how best to administer that discipline, but I've never heard any parent or parenting "expert" worth their salt say that a mother or father should completely ignore misbehavior that threatens the well-being of the child himself.

Discipline is in our human DNA. Consider for a moment what the world would look like if it came to be filled with people who had never been taught to reflect on their life challenges. People who bristled at the suggestion of personal growth.

And yet we become this way with God. Even the most "devout" among us shy away from occasions of divine constructive criticism. We avoid confession and forego daily examinations of conscience. We keep things superficial in our prayer life, avoiding depth of heart and real intimacy with God, afraid of what He will speak to us.

But when we do this, we rob ourselves of an opportunity to rely on God's fatherly strength, to rest in His mercy, to fill ourselves up with His goodness. We're putting up our hands, saying: "No thanks, Father, I'm good. You can keep your discipline. You can keep your grace."

When we do this, we are making a beeline for the "narrow gate," sure of our own strength and ability to pass through it. All I can say is this, proceed at your own peril. Are you so sure of yourself?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

IGNATIAN SPIRITUAL EXERCISES

The Ignatian Spiritual Exercises are prayers and meditations developed by St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus (commonly referred to as the Jesuits).

St. Ignatius of Loyola (1492-1556) was born to a noble Basque family. In his youth, he spent time at the Royal Court of Castile and fought in the Spanish army. He experienced a profound religious conversion during a long period of convalescence following a battle injury. Living in a cave outside of Manresa, he began to keep the journal that became the basis of the famous Spiritual Exercises.

The Spiritual Exercises are meant to accompany souls on a journey toward deeper contemplation of God's love and a more meaningful understanding of his call to discipleship in the life of each person. Divided into four stages, or "weeks," the exercises focus on the interior movements of the heart to unveil the will of God.
