THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Purity isn't popular at the moment. Or is it? Look at a rack of health magazines or at popular podcasts. You'll see an infinite ocean of regulations and rituals of diets, intermittent fasting, morning sun rituals, intense juice detox practices, lists of dangerous foods, mental practices, as well as long lists of dos and don'ts for the proper cleaning of clothes, dishes, cars, houses, pets, and children. Like it or not, we long to be pure, clean, and without blemish.

This question of purity haunted people in Jesus' day, too. The Pharisees and scribes (the leading purity authorities of the day) criticize Jesus, asking, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?" (Mark 7:5). Jesus responds by saying, "There is nothing outside the person that can defile him if it goes into him; but the things that come out of the person are what defile the person" (Mark 7:15). What does he mean, and how can it help us be pure?

We've probably all heard the somewhat shopworn interpretation that Jesus replaces the ritual, exterior notion of purity with a moral, interior one. Christianity is thus seen as a kind of moral re-tooling, as if religion doesn't make us pure. Good moral intentions do. But this doesn't take the rest of Jesus' ministry seriously enough, nor our obsession with purity. The better reading is that Jesus audaciously offers himself as the ultimate source of human purity — from within each human heart. Both our religious ritual practices and our moral actions are meant to flow from this encounter with Jesus the Lord. When we are in friendship with him, everything becomes pure for us.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, September 8th Readings

Is 35:4-7a/Ps 146:7, 8-9, 9-10 (1B)/Jas 2:1-5/Mk 7:31-37

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, September 8th

- The prophet Isaiah encouraged the Israelites to be strong in their conviction that God was coming to heal them and renew creation itself. Who could you encourage to be firm in their faith this week?
- James taught believers to make no distinctions between the rich and the poor in their community gatherings. How do you think showing no partiality helps a community grow in faith?
- We hear today how the people of the Decapolis were astonished at Jesus's healing of the deaf and mute. What parts of your life need healing?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

TEMPORARY DAILY MASS TIMES & PARKING

Please note that Daily Mass and parking for attendees will temporarily change as we prepare for Fall Fest. Starting on Tuesday, September 3, Daily Mass will begin at 9 a.m. Our west parking lot will be closing that day due to vendors and carnival rides arriving. As school drop-off and pick-up will be shifting to new locations, please note that parking will not be available in our west lot for Daily Mass. You are asked to park in the northeast lot or on the street (where allowed). We predict that these temporary changes will be in effect through Tuesday, September 10. Thank you for your understanding!

Please join us in praying for our nation on Saturday, Oct. 12th at noon to honor the 107th anniversary of the Virgin Mary's 6th and final apparition at Fatima on October 13th. The local Public Square Rosary Rally will take place at 163 E. Capitol Drive (Arkenstone Real Estate Experts-Mike Moen) in downtown Hartland.

Contact Carol Betzhold at 262-719-7155 for more information.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS, Canned Peaches, Creamy Peanut Butter, Chef Boyardee Beef Ravioli, Canned Mandarin Oranges, 4lb. Bags of Sugar, Paper Towels, Toilet Paper

The Gospel on the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time hits home closer than we may think. This week we may want to spend time considering how closely our lives reflect what God asks of us. We pray for the strength and courage to live according to the message of the truth we have received through the teachings of Jesus. Are we keeping the letter of the law and missing entirely the spirit of the law? Interior righteousness means a heart turned to God. Purity of heart is expressed in righteous living. As you give your gifts of food to the Pantry and make monetary donations to the SVDP general fund, your heart will find the good news of God's love.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you are in need of assistance or know of someone in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

FOCUS ON CAMPUS

Thank you so much for your generosity to St. Charles' four members of FOCUS and their mission! They were honored to share at all our Masses the work they continue to do on college campuses and in parishes. Below is a personal story from an encountering student this past year!

Allison had a student, Blake, who her teammate encountered on campus. He was a practicing Christian and came around the Newman Center for Bible study and often weekday Mass and suffered with ongoing questioning of his self-worth and goodness as a son of God. He had wanted to attend our annual conference, SEEK24, but he was unable to afford the associated costs. With your financial support, she was able to provide a full scholarship that covered all costs, allowing him to attend SEEK and have a profound encounter with the Lord in Eucharistic Adoration where he was able to receive the Truth spoken into the lies he was believing about himself. A few months later, he tragically passed away from injuries he sustained in an accident. Without your support, he would not have had this encounter and received the truth of who he was. Your support can literally change someone's life and give them the gift of encountering Jesus.

For more information, check out focus.org where you can search for AJ Garcia, Allison Kormanik, Matt Prendergast & Duke Bednarke under "Support A Missionary" and view their personal giving pages with their contact information.
