THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This morning I received a text message that a member of my extended family will likely die of cancer within the next few hours. His name is Luke. He is a 45-year-old husband and father of six. Though I am not as close to him as my sister (she is his sister-in-law and knows him well), I wonder: how can we, including Luke himself, manage such a terribly awful and unfair situation?

The words of this Sunday's Gospel offer a powerful and challenging path. Jesus says, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me" (Mark 8:34). Today I see with new freshness the starkness and strangeness the words take on. The cross stands for suffering, which is unjust, absurd, seemingly hopeless, and humiliating. Jesus doesn't say "accept" or "endure" or "tolerate" but "take up." Embrace it, actively. Choose it and lift it up for others to see what terrifies and sickens us. But somehow, for Jesus, this is the path to "saving one's life." A new world is breaking in, one in which love is everything, when no relationship can be wounded or die. I trust that in the embraced suffering of Luke and his loved ones, Jesus is taking up his cross and saving us all.

By the time you read this, barring a miracle, Luke will have died. He will be carrying his cross no longer. But we all still face suffering. This week let's not just endure but take up our crosses, big and small. That's our only hope for saving our lives.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE Lectio Diving

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, September 22nd Readings

Wis 2:12, 17-20/Ps 54:3-4, 5, 6-8 (6b)/Jas 3:16-4:3/Mk 9:30-37

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings.

Reflection questions for Sunday, September 22nd

- The Jewish wisdom writer teaches us that wicked people revile and test those who are just and upright. What might be an effective way to win over a wicked person?
- James encourages us to be sincere and consistent in cultivating peace. Can you think of a situation this week at home or at work where you could seek peace?
- We hear today that the disciples did not always understand Jesus and were afraid sometimes to ask him questions. How would you suggest dealing with tensions that arise in close relationships?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

Our Lady of Fatima Requested: "PRAY THE ROSARY"

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Canned Chicken Breast, Manwich, Canned Pineapple, Canned Peaches, Deodorant, Kidney Beans, Variety of Pasta (Penne, Elbow, Mostaccioli, etc.), Hamburger Helper

In today's Gospel on the Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus says, "If a man wishes to come after me, he must deny his very self, take up the cross, and follow in my steps." We must also take up the cross by healing the sick, who bear illness with courage; the grieving, who hope against hope; the dying, who clearly trust in the resurrection; and the suffering of our poor brothers and sisters who are hungry and homeless but who still trust in God's love.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of job or an illness? Please contact the St. Charles SVDP at 262-367-0800. The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm.

In the month of August, we had 101 families visit the food pantry. This is the second month in a row that we had over 100 families at the pantry. Thank you to all who donate food and other supplies to our pantry or make a donation to our general fund. We appreciate your generosity. May God bless you.

SUPPORT OUR GROCERS & HELP ST. CHARLES PARISH

Please save your receipts from Piggly Wiggly in Hartland/Oconomowoc and Sentry in Delafield. St. Charles receives 1% of the receipt totals from these receipts, and only receipts with grocery purchases are valid. Your receipts do pay off. In 2023, St. Charles received

$1,034.29 from Sentry and from Piggly Wiggly $3,601.10! Please use the drop box located next to the Parish Office to turn them in. Please include the whole receipt; do not cut the top or bottom off because it makes them invalid. Do not staple, tape, roll or rubber band them together and keep them flat. Receipts expire within six months, so be sure to turn them in as soon as possible. Thank you for your help!

MEN OF THE PARISH ARE INVITED!

The Morning Men's Group kickoff is on Thursday, Oct. 3rd, 5:30am - 7am, running on Thursdays through Dec. 19th for the Fall session. Join us for a fantastic hot breakfast including bacon or sausage and crullers! Come for the good times and new friendships you will make and leave with your life transformed in a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ!

This year we will start with the program The Eucharist In Scripture by The St. Paul Center. In The Eucharist in Scripture, discover God's plan as it is expressed through the Bible and the Mass. This six-lesson study, presented by Dr. Scott Hahn, will unlock the meaning of covenant, sacrifice, and sacrament as understood in the Bible, from Genesis through Revelation.

Built around three of Dr. Hahn's foundational talks: "The Lamb's Supper," "The Fourth Cup," and "Consuming the Word," The Eucharist in Scripture examines the biblical foundations of the Eucharist and explores the Church's liturgy as the original context for the books of the Bible.

For more information, contact St. Charles parishioner Jim Dunn at 262.751.7345 or mensgroup@stcharleshartland.org.
