THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 18:15-20

A few summers ago my family had a big reunion. It included my parents, my four siblings, and all their many children. One of my favorite moments was simply watching my parents' contented faces as they took in all of us together, laughing, sharing food, singing, and telling stories. They loved seeing their children happily together with each other.

That is something like the heart of God we see in today's Gospel message about Christian reconciliation. These verses come right after Jesus' parable of the lost sheep. He is not giving the disciples a cold formula for dealing with conflict. He is revealing the Father's longing for children who love and reconcile with each other. His heart aches when his children are divided and isolated.

So when Jesus says "Go and tell your brother his fault," He is not deputizing us as morality police. He is inviting us into his mission of reconciliation. When he adds, "If he listens to you, you have won over your brother," we glimpse the real goal. Not winning arguments, but reuniting a divided family.

These days we often think religion is just between God and me. But the Father's dream is about a lively family, one in which His children forgive, gather, and rejoice together.

Lord Jesus, give me the courage to seek reconciliation where it is needed. Make my heart resemble the Father's heart, longing and working for unity among His children. Amen.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, September 13th

Sir 27:30-28:7/Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12/Rom 14:7-9/Mt 18:21-35

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, September 13th

- Sirach encourages us not to hold anger or seek revenge against a neighbor who has wronged us. Can you think of a time when you took this good advice?
- Paul tells us that Jesus died and rose to life so he might be the Lord of the living and the dead. How do you remain open to Jesus as the Lord of your life?
- In the parable of the unforgiving servant, Jesus teaches Peter the importance of forgiving others from the heart. How do you know your forgiveness of others is sincere?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

Please note that there will be no 6pm Mass on Sunday, September 6th.

Daily Mass on Monday, September 7th will be at 9:00am.

MEET. KNOW. LOVE. SERVE.

Since moving to Oconomowoc, our family has been blessed to call St. Charles home. Our two boys attend St. Charles School and we have been nothing but happy with their education and faith formation.

The St. Charles community is unlike anything we could have imagined, and I know we have made lifelong friends.

Through the years we have served as a Baptism Mentor Family and recently my husband Andrew has been involved in Becoming Fully Catholic as a sponsor. I have been fortunate to lead a small group of women who challenge me to explore my faith more deeply. We truly walk our faith journey together. Additionally, volunteering for the school allows me to serve this beautiful community in a myriad of ways including on the Home and School Association.

Our family continues to be grateful for the gifts of St. Charles and we hope to continue to serve for years to come.
