THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 18:21-35

In my parish there was once a new employee who frequently told me she was sorry for various imperfections in her work. It could be a little tiring. I finally told her, "You know, you don't have to say 'sorry' so often." She looked me right in the eyes and said, "Father, you're right. I'm sorry." Her ear-to-ear grin betrayed that she enjoyed the irony — and that she would keep asking for forgiveness as often as she needed it.

The Gospel reading this week proclaims to us that God, in Jesus, delights in numerous requests for, and the granting of, forgiveness. To Peter's question, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus responds, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." In other words, Peter, stop counting.

Christian life should be marked by a commitment to frequent forgiveness. God never tires of forgiving us. His limitless love has overcome the power of vengeance, hatred, and division. We tap into that each and every time we ask for forgiveness or extend it to another.

How beautiful our hearts become when they become accustomed to frequent forgiveness! How joyful and attractive become our marriages, families, and parish communities! How light our souls feel when unburdened by the habit of keeping score.

Challenge: Name one thing, small or large, for which you could ask forgiveness from someone in your life. Then do it.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, September 20th

Is 55:6-9/Ps 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18/Phil 1:20c-24, 27a/
Mt 20:1-16a

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit

Reflection questions for Sunday, September 20th

- Isaiah teaches that while God's thoughts and ways are far beyond our understanding, the Lord is nonetheless near to us. When do you feel closest to God?
- As Paul writes to the Philippians from prison, he speaks of his spiritual dilemma of feeling caught between life and death. Who do you turn to for spiritual guidance?
- In the parable of the workers in the vineyard, Jesus teaches that in the kingdom of Heaven, God's generosity is not always easily understood. Where do you see God's generosity at work among your family or friends?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

I'm excited to begin this next stage of my formation with you all. Know of my prayers and please pray for me, as well! When you see me in the Narthex after Sunday Mass, feel free to introduce yourself and say hello.

Becoming Fully Catholic is a journey for those who wish to become Catholic and for adults who are already Catholic but need Confirmation or First Communion. The Church envisions that every journey of faith is accompanied by a personal encounter with Christ. As such, Becoming Fully Catholic seeks to facilitate this "encounter" through formation and experience.

BFC consists of gathering together as a group on most 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month from 10:15-11:45 a.m. at the parish with Fr. Aaron Siehr. Our next session is Sunday, September 20th after the 9am Mass.
