THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 21:28-32

This Sunday, Jesus tells a short, uncomfortable story. A father asks two sons to go work in the vineyard. One says no but later goes. The other says yes but never shows up. It is a parable so simple, we almost miss how sharp it is. Jesus is clear about who it is for. This is not aimed at pagans or outsiders. It is aimed squarely at religious people, people who know the right words and sound obedient.

Jesus is not condemning unbelief so much as disobedience. The polite hypocrisy that says the right things while quietly resisting the Father's will. St. John Chrysostom put it bluntly, "Not words, but deeds, are what God requires. Nothing so exasperates Him as insincere obedience, while nothing so delights Him as repentance."

Every disciple must face that mirror. Do I publicly profess faith in Christ while privately resisting what He asks of me? It is easy to say, I believe in God in my heart. But if faith never becomes action, it slowly becomes an illusion.

Jesus does not expose hypocrisy to shame us. He reveals it to heal us. He wants our hearts and our deeds to speak the same word, to let our yes truly mean yes. Like the second son who initially refused but afterwards changed his mind and went, Jesus invites us to step into the Father's will, however late, however imperfectly.

Challenge: Where are your public faith and private obedience divided? Where do you say, I will go, but never enter the vineyard? Go, get to work, even if it is late. The Father's vineyard is still open.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, October 4th

Is 5:1-7/Ps 80:9 and 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20/Phil 4:6-9/Mt 21:33-43

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings.

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 4th

• Isaiah speaks of God's frustration over the people of Judah (the Lord's "cherished plant") who have not yielded a good crop. How do you encourage family or friends to live up to their potential?

• Paul teaches the Philippians that prayer and positive thoughts are key to avoiding anxiety and experiencing the peace of God. What are some positive thoughts you focus on when you are stressed or anxious?

• Jesus harshly criticizes the chief priests and Pharisees in the Parable of the Tenants. How do you deliver legitimate criticism to someone you care about?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

CELEBRATING DEACON JOHN VAN HECKE

Congratulations to Deacon John Van Hecke on his Ordination to the Permanent Diaconate!

As a parish, we will be celebrating with John after all Masses this weekend!

Please join us in the Borromeo Hall for a sweet treat and refreshments!

A REFLECTION FROM DEACON JOHN VAN HECKE

I have always loved saint stories. They are stories of real people who led real lives. Sometimes tangled, sometimes heroic, their lives ultimately led to God. Father Ken has even told us bits of Saint Charles Borromeo's story over the years. You could say we have gotten to know Saint Charles a little. He was an amazing man who did amazing things for the people around him. And since we believe he is alive and well in Heaven, we're encouraged to ask him to pray for us from his privileged place in God's company.

During my Ordination Mass on September 12, I was one of the eleven men who laid down in front of the altar for the Litany of the Saints. I felt amazed listening to everyone singing their requests for prayer on our behalf from so many incredible saints. The cantor intoned, "Saint Charles Borromeo," and everyone responded, "pray for us." Saint after saint was mentioned and everyone sang. Each saint brought to my mind a snippet of their story and feelings of both admiration and familiarity. I truly felt that I was immersed in a community spanning two worlds that was welcoming and encouraging me to grow in closeness to our Lord.

As a deacon, that's exactly how I want to make you feel when we get to pray together at St. Charles, and when we build up this community by working together to help those in need. And each time we talk together, whether it's a few words in the narthex, a homily, or a deep conversation about things that really matter, I hope to make you feel welcomed and encouraged to grow closer to our Lord and closer in community - along with me, fellow parishioners, with Saint Charles Borromeo himself, and with all the Saints.

WELCOME TO BRYAN STAEDLER!

Associate Director of Liturgy and Music

My name is Bryan Staedler, and I am thrilled to be joining the Worship Team at St. Charles as the new Associate Director of Liturgy and Music! I grew up attending St. Agnes Parish in Butler, WI, and I've spent the past eleven years as the Director of Liturgy and Music at St. Leonard Catholic Church in Muskego.

I live in Greendale with my wife Jenny and our son Colton. Outside of ministry, I enjoy grilling and barbecuing, following Wisconsin sports, and spending time with my family. I look forward to getting to know the St. Charles community and serving with you!
