Please Keep for Your Records

- The Assets of the Participant and control of the Assets remains with the Participant. The Asset is held by the Foundation in a custodial capacity only for investment purposes and not as a trust. Foundation shall manage the Asset according to the Uniform Management of Institutional Funds Act as provided by California statutes.
- Foundation shall invest and reinvest the Asset in compliance with Participant's instructions. The Participant may choose to allocate the Asset among the investment options offered by the Foundation, including, but not limited to one or more Investment Funds (as defined in the Foundation's Disclosure Statement) and the underlying portfolios that constitute the Investment Funds maintained by the Foundation. Foundation may employ consultants and advisors concerning management of the Assets and its Investment Funds and the underlying portfolios that constitute its Investment Funds. Foundation shall furnish Participant a quarterly account statement showing status and earnings of the Assets. Foundation shall pay income, or make distribution, on the Assets in accordance with the written directions of the Participant and the then current policies of the Foundation. Foundation shall at all times hold and administer the Assets in accordance with the terms of Foundation's Investment Policy as may be modified by the Foundation from time to time.
- Foundation shall, upon specific instructions of Participant, separately invest such portion of the Assets as Participant shall require, provided, however, that on such separately invested Assets, Foundation shall deduct its cost recovery charge prior to determining the net income of such separately invested Asset.
- Participant acknowledges that the Foundation will receive a management fee in accordance with its stated schedule. The fees are based on the market value of the Assets under management and are calculated by applying the annual fee percentage to the total market value of the Assets, multiplied by a fraction, the denominator of which is the number of days in the applicable year and the numerator of which is the number of days during which such assets were under management. All fees shall be payable from the Assets invested by the Participant with the Foundation.
- Participant or Foundation may cancel this Agreement at any time by a 90 day written notice. Upon termination, the Foundation shall distribute all Assets then held by it hereunder to the Participant or in accordance with the written instructions of the Participant; provided, however, that the Foundation shall be under no duty or obligation to transfer or deliver the Assets until the Participant has furnished it with all supporting documents necessary to effect the transfer of the Assets.

There is no minimum or maximum investment limit at this time. Additions to the Investment Funds may be made at any time.  - (b) management and related fees earned through its Lending Services Division;
 - (c) investment income;
 - (d) gifts and
 - (e) other miscellaneous sources.
- The Foundation has not been registered under any federal or state securities laws, pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Philanthropy Protection Act of 1995 (the "Act").

- Participant acknowledges that the entirety of the Assets consists of funds of a charitable entity. The Participant warrants that none of the assets transferred by the Participant to the Foundation are held for retirement plans.
- Participant acknowledges that it has received and reviewed the Investment Policy and Disclosure Statement of the Foundation, which provides written information describing the material operations of the funds held and maintained by the Foundation, and that it, or its representatives, possesses such knowledge and experience in investments of this type to evaluate the risks and merits of the investment options made available by the Foundation. The Participant acknowledges that the Foundation does not guarantee the results of its investment strategies. Past investment performance history is not an indicator, nor a guarantee of future performance.
- All notices and requests after the date of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been duly given if in writing and delivered or sent by U.S. mail, to the respective addresses set forth at the beginning of this Agreement.
- The Participant is prohibited from assigning, encumbering, or otherwise transferring its interests in the investment option made available by the Foundation under the terms of this Agreement. - Neither the Foundation, its affiliates, nor any of their respective officers, directors, agents, or employees (the "Covered Parties") shall be liable to the Participant for: (1) any loss arising from the Participant's direction or from any information supplied by the Participant to the Foundation; or (2) any act or failure to act by any of the Covered Parties that does not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Participant agrees to indemnify and hold the Covered Parties harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, expenses, and liabilities (including reasonable attorneys' fees) relating to or arising from this Custodial Agreement.

Resolution

In the case of errors or questions about your transfer, you will call or write the Foundation using the contact information listed below, promptly. You will call or write the Foundation if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement. - Tell the Foundation your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer that you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell the Foundation the dollar amount of the suspected error. If you notify the Foundation orally, the Foundation may require that you send your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days. The Foundation will tell you the results of its investigation within ten (10) business days after the Foundation hears from you and will correct any error promptly. If the Foundation needs more time, however, it may take up to forty-five (45) days to investigate your complaint or question. If the Foundation decides to do this, it will credit your account within ten (10) business days for the amount that you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes the Foundation to complete its investigation. If the Foundation asks you to put your request or question in writing and it does not receive it within ten (10) business days the Foundation may not credit your account. For questions involving new accounts, we may take up to ninety (90) days to investigate your complaint or question. With respect to new accounts, we may take up to twenty (20) business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error. The Foundation will inform you of the results of its investigation within three (3) business days of its completion. If the Foundation decides that there was no error, the Foundation will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that the Foundation used in the investigation.
