

WEEK THREE: I CALLED OUT... AND HE ANSWERED ME (1:17-2:10)

1. Jonah's rescue did not look comfortable at first. Where have you seen God's mercy come through correction, interruption, or hardship rather than immediate relief?
2. Jonah prayed from the depths, not after he had everything figured out. What keeps you from calling out to God honestly when you are guilty, ashamed, tired, or spiritually numb?
3. Jonah said, "Salvation belongs to the LORD." why is it hard for us to admit that we cannot save ourselves, fix ourselves, or earn our way back to God?
4. Jesus entered the depths of death for sinners and rose again. How does the death and resurrection of Jesus give hope to people who feel too far gone?

WEEKLY CHALLENGE

Call out to God from where you actually are.

Take time this week to pray honestly:

"Lord, I need mercy. I cannot save myself. I believe salvation belongs to You."
