

BRING IT ON HOME!

Today's Bible Story is from 1 Samuel 1 – 3.

Parents

For Fun:

Have a diaper-changing contest with the family. Use a baby doll or something around your house as the "baby" and see who can remove and replace the fastest. You can also share stories of what was in your heart and your prayers when your kid(s) were born.

To Serve:

Deliver a meal, gift, or offer to drop off a cup of coffee for a young mom. Talk with your kids about Hannah's prayer and how God provided a son for her. Explain how God used Samuel, Hannah's son, to anoint David as God's chosen king over Israel and ancestor of Jesus—the King of kings!

Hannah prayed for a son, and God answered her prayer by giving her Samuel, showing that God hears us and answers in His perfect timing. Hannah kept her promise to God by dedicating Samuel to serve Him, and Samuel learned to listen for God's voice when God called him in the night. Samuel responded to God's call by saying, 'Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.'
