Solomon, the wise king, built a beautiful temple so God could dwell with His people. But God's presence didn't stay in a building—Jesus came to live among us, and now the Holy Spirit lives inside everyone who trusts Him. That means we are God's temple, and we can ask Him for wisdom and live in a way that shows His glory every day.

PARENTS

For Fun:

Look up some beautiful church buildings in your neighborhood or town and drive together to look at them. Discuss how the beauty of these buildings honors and glorifies God, but that we don't need a beautiful building to meet with God. Because of Jesus, we can meet with God anywhere.

To Serve:

Volunteer to clean inside or pick up sticks outside for your local church. As you work, talk with kids about how we no longer need a building to worship God. At the same time, we can work to make the building more beautiful to draw the
