

BRING IT ON HOME!

Thursday, June 25th & Sunday, June 28th

Memory Verse: Deuteronomy 6:4-5- "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. ⁵ You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

PARENTS

Today's Bible Story is from: 2 Kings 4-6.

For Fun:

Go to a park as a family. If you have a kite or pinwheel, take it with you. Look at the trees, fly your kite, play with the pinwheel, or watch the grass and leaves blowing in the wind. Explain how we can't see the wind, but we can see how it affects things around us. Likewise, we can't see God, but He is always at work in the world around us. We can also read about the miracles Jesus has done and know that He is the Son of God! And that He still works today!

To Serve

Make a list of the miracles recorded in the Bible. Write as many of the miracles as you can on craft sticks and place those in a jar. When you go through a tough season that causes doubt in God, encourage your family to retrieve a stick from the jar and be reminded of His faithfulness.

HELPING KIDS TAKE THEIR NEXT STEPS WITH JESUS.

Thursday, June 25th & Sunday, June 28th

Elisha was a prophet who trusted God, and God did amazing miracles through him. God made a little bit of bread feed many people, healed a man named Naaman, and even made an iron ax float on water. These miracles show that God is powerful and works through His children. God still loves to work in our lives today. He still does miracles today!
