

Summer Study: Part Five

“Listening to the Right Voice”

Deuteronomy 18:9-15

Introduction

We live in a world filled with voices

- I. God Calls His People to be Different | Vs. 9-12
 - A. Human nature has not changed
 - B. We want to know what tomorrow holds without trusting the God who holds tomorrow
- II. God Desires Complete Trust | Vs. 13-14
 - A. Blameless = wholehearted devotion
 - B. What are you trusting today?
 - C. Faith chooses to trust God in the middle of uncertainty
- III. God Provides His Word | Vs. 15
 - A. God has always had His Prophets to speak His Word
- IV. The Challenge of Competing Voices
 - A. The voice of Christ says, “Follow me”
- V. Living as People Who Listen
 - A. Immerse ourselves in Scripture
 - B. Pray with humble hearts
 - C. Remain connected to the church
 - D. Obey what God has already revealed

Conclusion

Deuteronomy 18 presents two paths:

- 1. One path seeks guidance through substitutes
- 2. The other listens to God who faithfully speaks