

The Importance of Doctrine

Why This Summer Series

Introduction

Can you recognize false statements?

The State of Theology

Looking ahead.

What is theology and doctrine?

Theo = God, Logos = logic/study

I. So Why This Series on Doctrine

2 Timothy 3:16, Titus 1:9, Titus 2:1,
Hebrews 13:9, Ephesians 4:14, 2 Timothy 4:3-4,
Colossians 2:8, 1 John 4:1.

II. It Makes a Difference in Our Lives

- A. Study doctrine to ignite greater purity and passion in worship.
- B. Study doctrine to think and live Biblically in this present world.
- C. Study doctrine to fulfill your God-given responsibility to protect and propagate the truth.
- D. Study doctrine to give reason for the hope that you have in Christ.

Conclusion

Doctrine is not irrelevant. It is essential to everything you are and do as a Christian.