Healing Prayers

St. John's has a longstanding tradition of offering private prayers for healing in the chapel during communion. Many of you have shared how meaningful it is to step into the chapel, speak the fears and joys that weigh on your heart, and lift them up to God who is with us in all the challenges of human life. This summer, we're going to build on that tradition and offer public prayers for healing during both services on Sunday, July 21, between the Confession and the Peace.

David and I were inspired to do this after experiencing public healing prayers ourselves, at the renewal of ordination vows on Tuesday of Holy Week this year. Bishop White led the service, and she observed that the last few years have been terribly difficult on clergy, and, really, all of us. In addition to the losses, illness, and struggles we've faced as individuals, the entire world lived through the trauma of the pandemic. We may seem to be okay on the surface, but many of us are not okay, not really. And the Church knows what to do when people are not okay: we pray for them, lay hands on them, and anoint them with oil, asking God to heal them in body, mind, and spirit. Then Bishop White invited those who wished to come forward for healing prayers. Nearly three-quarters of the congregation did. I knew the pain some of them were facing—loneliness, grief, exhaustion, anxiety, poor health—and others I could only imagine. As we sang hymns, I joined the line, and David did too. One by one, our bishop gently and firmly laid her hands on our heads, prayed for us, and smeared oil on our foreheads in the sign of the cross. Bishop Price was anointed, then he motioned to Bishop White, and he anointed her. Two priests who had been estranged after an interpersonal conflict came forward, clasping each other's hand, to receive prayer and anointing together. I remember gasping as they stepped up to the bishop and murmuring, "That is the work of God right there."

After the liturgy, we were all saying how much we needed healing and how grateful we were that Bishop White had done this for us. It did not fix everything that was broken in our lives. The situations in my life that prompted me to ask for anointing are still present, all these weeks later, but I notice anger turning to sorrow, greater compassion for myself and others. I'm not cured, but God has been at work to heal me. And I trust that others who were there that day have felt that healing too. That service was the holiest moment I had experienced in months, and it was a profound blessing to take part in it.

David and I now want to share God's healing presence and power with all of you. So we invite you to come for prayer and anointing on the 21st. Whatever is going on for you, however you need healing in your life, God wants to heal your hurting body, mind, heart, and spirit. We'll sing hymns together, and pray, and God's creative, loving presence will be in our midst to bring us all to greater wholeness. I hope you will be there to witness it.

Blessings, Gia+

Warden's Corner

Summer is a busy time of year for David Talbot, St. John's Facilities Manager, and the Property Committee. There are projects both big and small that will be taking place over the summer months. That does not include the normal day to day maintenance and repairs that an historic building like St. John's always needs. Work on the playground will be a priority so it can be completed before the St. John's Early Education Center begins its new school year. Another project that will happen later in the summer will be the replacement of the windows in the south stairwell.

A longer-term project that is beginning to take shape is the repair work to the Church's steeple. More information about the steeple project will be coming in the months ahead.

Meanwhile at the June Vestry meeting, Greg Kellison, on behalf of the Re-Imagining Stewardship Task Force, made a presentation of the Task Force's recommendations. A robust discussion followed. The Vestry thanked the Task Force for their work and the report was accepted by the Vestry.

The Vestry approved the submission of a grant application to the Diocesan Episcopal Community Ministries committee to support the Friendship Dinner.

Lisa Graupmann made a report concerning the deterioration of the windows in the south stairwell. The Vestry approved a motion to authorize the expenditure of up to $3,500 for window purchase/repair.

The Care and Feeding of St. John's

On the heels of our recent committee restructuring, I've volunteered to help coordinate Coffee Hour signups and management through the end of the calendar year. My deepest gratitude goes out to everyone who has served as a beverage or snack host over the past few months, as well as to those who have signed up to host in July, August, and September. If you've enjoyed treats during fellowship in the past and are able, I hope you'll consider serving as a host or co-host in the future – and if you're not sure where to start, I'm happy to work with you as you learn the ropes your first Sunday!

You may also find, particularly during the summer months, that we simply don't have a host for a certain Sunday. This ministry relies on volunteers, and we are working to rebuild our ranks so that hosting Coffee Hour doesn't mean regularly "working through" worship and fellowship for its hosts.

Finally, a housekeeping note to all who host food-related activities at St. John's: please discard or distribute your leftovers instead of stashing them in the refrigerators in the kitchen or kitchenette; if you must leave them, please label them with your name and a date. Dietary restrictions render most leftovers inedible, as does the inevitable mold growth and spoilage. (The author of this article recently forgot leftover grapes she meant to take home, and later had to confess the spoilage was hers in a meeting with the Rector).

Thank you to all who keep our treasured Coffee Hour ministry afloat, and for your efforts to keep our kitchens a bit more functional!

Singles Dining Out

In late June, several women and one gentleman enjoyed a delicious potluck lunch at Suzan Jervey's cabin and shelter house north of Newark. We reveled in the peaceful setting, enjoyed congenial conversation, and topped off our lunch with s'mores. Thanks to Suzan for her gracious hospitality!

For our next Singles Dining Out adventure, we will gather to enjoy homestyle Italian cuisine at Claudiana on Thursday, July 18, at 6:00 pm. Claudiana Italian Restaurant is located at 8475 Sancus Boulevard, Columbus OH 43240. You can find their mouth-watering dinner menu at <https://claudianarestaurant.com/columbus-claudiana-italian-restaurant-food-menu>. Please RSVP to Ellen Stukenberg at 614-885-8522 or ewstuke@gmail.com so she can let Claudiana know the size of our group.

Our August Singles Dining Out adventure is yet to be determined, so keep an eye on the Sunday announcements in the coming weeks.

Singles Dining Out is an informal group of St. John's parishioners and friends, always happy to welcome new participants. Singles and married individuals who will be attending without their spouse are welcome to participate, and feel free to invite a friend who is not a member of St. John's. We hope you can join us on July 18 for Italian cuisine!

15th Annual PIMIL Fundraising Luncheon

Please join us for the Milestone 15th Annual PIMIL International Luncheon & Silent Auction at St. Philip's Episcopal Church, 166 Woodland Avenue, Columbus, OH on Saturday, July 20, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. The event is a family activity! Feast on American and Liberian cuisine, enjoy nonalcoholic ginger beer, make a grass skirt and African headwrap, read letters and essays by Liberian students, shop at tables of jewelry and original artwork, visit the cookie table, bid on baskets of treasures at the Silent Auction, and join in the drumming circle. Speakers, videos, and music will introduce you to some of the amazing students who are now able to attend school because of funding from PIMIL. This year's theme is: "Shout with joy to the Lord, all ye lands; ..." (Ps. 98:4). This year's fundraising goal is $25,000, to help support the education of over 200 students and new applicants in Liberia. Tickets are $20 for adults, $10 for children aged 5-19, and free for children aged 4 and under. Donations are accepted! For tickets, call Kathy Hall (614-888-1933). If you wish to donate because you will not be present, you may send a check made out to St. Matthew's Episcopal Church (with PIMIL in the memo line) to 30 East College Avenue, Westerville, OH 43081.

Versiti Blood Drive, July 20

St. John's will host a blood drive on Saturday, July 20, 9:00 am to 2:00 pm, in Kilbourne Hall, with Versiti Blood Center, the main supplier of blood to the Ohio State University Wexner Center. Our Versiti contact Alissa recently visited the Worthington Farmers Market on a sunny Saturday, and she invited us to host a Saturday blood drive to encourage donors from the community as well as from our church. We will try to provide some dedicated parking spaces for blood donors. Help keep the local blood supply strong!! Just one hour of your time can help save up to three lives!!! Someone needs blood every 2 seconds, and your donation may help a NICU baby, cancer fighter, sickle cell warrior, transplant patient, trauma survivor, or someone else right here in our community. You can sign up for a time to donate (before or after picking up your fresh produce and flowers at the Farmers Market) at https://donate.ohio.versiti.org/donor/schedules/drive_schedule/219362. Our goal is at least 12 donors, but let's fill up the whole schedule with 25 people. Together we could save up to 75 lives! If you would like to take a turn as a greeter to help welcome our donors on July 20, please contact Mary Bailey at 614-619-1803 or mphbailey.3@gmail.com.

Important Dates

Commemorating the Philadelphia Eleven | Monday, July 29, 6:30 p.m.

This July 29 marks the 50th anniversary of the Philadelphia Eleven, the first women ordained to the priesthood in the Episcopal Church. St. John's is honored to host the Diocese of Southern Ohio's commemoration of this church-changing day. A festival Eucharist will be held in our nave at 6:30 p.m., with Bishop Kristin Uffelman White preaching and Bishop Nedi Rivera presiding. Please join us to give thanks for women's ministry!

General Convention Recap | Sundays, July 28 and August 4, 10:15 a.m.

General Convention, the Episcopal Church's legislative assembly, met in late June in Louisville. Gia Hayes-Martin and Wendell Gibbs were there, and they will share what General Convention is and what it did. All are welcome; childcare for young children is available in the nursery.

Singing Our Faith | Sundays, August 11 through September 1, 10:15 a.m.

It's a hymn sing with storytelling! Each week, three or four people will share their favorite hymn and tell a story about why it's meaningful to them, then we'll sing it together. Stephen Sollars will accompany on piano. Come for some good musical fun and learn a bit about the people worshipping next to you. Childcare for young children is available in the nursery.

SAVE THE DATES: July 14th, 21st, and 28th

Calling all parishioners! The Outreach and Social Justice Committee is organizing a fun-filled hands-on ministry event which will give us a chance to directly impact the patients of The James Cancer Hospital. Starting July 14th during Coffee Hour, parishioners will gather to make fleece tied blankets and sign Greeting Cards for the oncology patients of The James! These blankets will bring comfort and warmth and the Greeting Cards will bring a message of encouragement to the patients and their families.

Please mark your calendars for this first time hands-on event for us to support the patients of The James.

Huckleberry House Wish List Drive

Starting August 4th, the Outreach and Social Justice Committee will be holding a donation drive in the Atrium for the Huckleberry House. The Huckleberry House helps Central Ohio youth who are struggling with homelessness, family conflict, poverty, and violence. They provide shelter, support, and guidance to young people facing difficult situations through four main programs:

- A 24/7 Crisis Shelter offering a temporary safe place to stay for teens ages 12 to 17 including hot meals, a warm bed, and access to necessities like clothes and hygiene items.
- A Transitional Living Program for young people, 18-24 years old, providing a safe place to live combined with a range of supportive services.
- A Counseling Center, with a team of therapists who specialize in working with teens, young adults, and families to help solve even the most challenging problems.

- The Youth Outreach Program, a team of trained, professional staff that engage with youth to prevent homelessness and provide support and resources to increase stability.

St. John's Outreach and Social Justice Committee will collect your donations through Sunday, August 25th. Detailed information about how you can support this effort will be coming soon in the Weekly Announcements!

Nehemiah Action Report

On Tuesday, May 21st, St. John's had 36 people attend the BREAD Columbus Nehemiah Action at the Celeste Center at the fairgrounds. There were more than 1700 people in attendance from faith communities around the city! We heard updates on the important issues that BREAD is working on through its various committees. There have been some amazing victories in areas such as protecting the tree canopy, reducing gang-related violence, active bystander training for police, a non-police response team for mental health crises, restorative justice practices in schools, affordable housing, and more! It felt so empowering to be among so many other people who want to work towards a more just society. BREAD also has started work on this year's issue by advocating for protections for renter's rights. We heard some personal stories from renters which really helped us to see how seriously this issue is affecting ordinary people who just need an affordable, stable, and safe place to live.

Many thanks to Eve, Teri, and Wendy who helped with the details the day of the event and also leading up to it. Thank you to all who helped with dinner and the drivers who helped with the carpooling. Much appreciation also goes to our Network Members and parishioners who attended and invited people to the Action this year. Our "people power" shows how many people truly do care about the issues and those affected by them. Last but not least, I want to thank Gia and David for their support in all the ways, big and small, they have supported BREAD this past year. For anyone who would like to be more involved with BREAD in the coming year, feel free to reach out at any time, or look for our announcements for the house meeting in the fall.

St. John's Celebrates PRIDE Month!

Inclusion. Acceptance. Healing. Diversity. Equity. Love. All words that we use when talking about our hopes for the LGBTQIA community. Those words are put into action during the month of June with the vision of a world where all of us thrive and our connection is real year-round.

Worthington celebrated a Pride-themed Sunday Funday on June 2nd. St. John's joined in the fun and helped spread the message of the Episcopal Church – God loves you, no exceptions! We enjoyed talking to visitors about our faith, our history, and especially our legacy of inclusion. We thank the Diocese for providing handouts and literature. The Outreach and Social Justice Committee supplied colorful leis and informational brochures about St. John's created by Nancy Elkington.

Then, on June 9th, parishioners shared in God's love for every human being by celebrating Pride after Sunday services. The Atrium display included a showing of the "Light the World with Love" projection light show produced by OBLSK for St. John's in 2023. Rainbow carnations and other handouts highlighted the event. The Atrium was alive with joy!

Please visit the Stonewall Columbus website for more information about the history of Pride Month, the Stonewall Inn riots, and how YOU can be an agent for change.

Garden Glories!

“Every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit.” Matthew 7:17

Trees come down. Have you noticed? All around the campus, trees have been taken down. Some were good trees but deemed to be too close to the buildings. Some were causing problems for us and our neighbors. Some were just bad trees.

Bradford pear trees bear bad fruit – sticky substances that can ruin the finish on a car – and the trees themselves are so invasive that they are now illegal in the state of Ohio. Over the last few years, all four of them have been cut down. One magical yew grew to be taller than the Parish House and was causing moisture problems on the roof and the side of the building. It had to go, as did others that hugged the church too closely. The two taxus on either side of the Chapel door were overgrown with root systems that can affect the church itself. One of the two dying maples in front of the church that was dropping large branches is gone, and the other one will follow it.

The Property Committee has overseen this project in consultation with the Lay Weeders, who are researching landscape changes with native plants that will fill the spaces responsibly. While a tree may be causing problems, it is an enormous asset to the environment as it captures carbon. We hope to remedy this loss. Happily, St. John's fig tree continues to be a good tree that bears good fruit!

Come join us! Everyone is welcome to help tend our twenty+ garden beds. The next working afternoons are July 6th, July 20th, and August 3rd, 17th, and 31st. 1:00 pm at the sheds.

Nature Camp and Beach Camp were a success! The children went camping on the beach, took a nature walk through our gardens, learned about why things float, played in the sand, and made all sorts of wonderful nature and beach themed creations. Camp was a great way to wrap up the school year and to officially say hello to summer break.

We have also been busy this summer preparing the classrooms for the school year ahead. All of the rooms are getting a fresh coat of paint. Windows and floors will be professionally cleaned and we have cleaned and reorganized our storage areas. The preschool also had a garage sale to rehome all of the gently used items that we no longer needed.

School is out, but we have kept busy!

SJEEC is still enrolling, so if you or someone you know is looking for a preschool home, be sure to give us a call. We'd love to give you a tour and introduce you to our teachers and their classrooms.

VBS 2024!

I love getting to work with our beloved kiddos during Vacation Bible School every year! This June our theme has been “Episco-Pals” – a time to learn about what it means to be an Episcopalian. Some highlights:

On June 10th, Wendell Gibbs, a retired bishop who attends St. John's, came by in full bishop regalia, and talked about what each item of clothing means – the kids even got to try on his hat (the mitre) and hold his staff (the crozier)!

On June 17th, our theme was prayer, and when we pray with the kids, we often blow bubbles so as to symbolize those prayers reaching God. So on June 17th, St. John's member Mary Bailey went overboard with bubble activities for the kids, and it was so fun! Here one of our kids makes a long circular bubble by turning in a circle with two sticks, a rope, and bubbly liquid.

Thanks much to St. John's member Kim Rice for the photos!

David Burman

Also on June 10th, St. John's member Melissa Christophersen-Redmill had the kids do a scavenger hunt in the sanctuary, where they located images on stained-glass windows, the gospel book, some of our needlepoint kneelers, and other holy things of God. Here I am showing some of the kids how intricate those needlepoint kneelers are.

Churchyard Preservation Project

On June 12, Nancy Elkington and Ted Dziemianowicz gave a talk on the Church Preservation Project at the Worthington Historical Society annual meeting to an enthusiastic standing-room-only crowd that included a dozen St. John's parishioners. Thanks for your strong support!

Our first volunteer work day on Tuesday, June 25, was also a great success, engaging church AND town in this effort to preserve a part of our community's history. Ten volunteers from St. John's, Columbus, Gahanna and Worthington turned out to clean 13 headstones, enjoy fellowship around our 220-year-old churchyard, and break bread (OK, it was pizza, thanks to a kind donation by Jane Lagusch).

Another work day is being planned for this fall.

Organ Committee Update

Greetings from the Organ Committee. After a hiatus over the winter, the committee resumed its work in early spring on the project to restore or replace our Schantz organ in the nave. Working with our consultant, David Kazimir, who is the curator of organs at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, we reviewed the five proposals that we received last year. We eliminated three of those proposals for reasons of cost or other concerns. The two remaining are from The Schantz Organ Company (Orrville, OH) and Muller Pipe Organ Company (Croton, OH). While the proposals from these companies were both considered worthy of further consideration, we did have some questions and comments on which we are following up with them.

In addition, our consultant brought to our attention another company that he thought could be a good match for us and our project, Parsons Pipe Organ Builders of Canandaigua, NY, a company that David knows well. We invited one of their representatives to visit St. John's in early June to see and listen to our organ and discuss the project with David. According to David, the representative from Parsons expressed excitement at the opportunity to work with us and our space. As David said of the meeting, he came away from it feeling confident that Parsons is "a builder whose core sense of the art was based around how an instrument can effectively serve a space and provide lasting musical support for music and liturgy." We expect to have a proposal from Parsons within the next several weeks.

Our next meeting is scheduled for July 15, at which time we hope to be able to review the updated proposals from Schantz and Muller and the new proposal from Parsons. The next step after that will likely be to schedule meetings with each of the builders to discuss their proposals so that we can then begin the process of comparing the proposals against our criteria and against each other so that we can develop a recommendation for vestry as to which proposal the committee believes would be the best balanced choice for St. John's. We will, of course, provide further updates as we move along in the process.

Food Pantry

Summer arrived with a fierce heat wave in June, and our Food Pantries continue to experience a steep increase in visits from people needing emergency food assistance. Thank you to all who contributed to the Summer Stock Up Food Drive at Worthington Resource Pantry – we delivered 127 pounds of food and toiletries. As we enjoy the lazy, hazy days of summer, let's continue our commitment to this caring ministry of feeding God's children, either by bringing donations of food and toiletries to the baskets at church or by making a financial contribution to our food pantries. Our pantries can turn a $1 contribution into $4 worth of food for our neighbors.

If your summer garden is producing an abundance of wonderful vegetables, please remember that the Worthington Resource Pantry will be VERY happy to take your extra peppers, tomatoes, zucchini, etc., because they like to include fresh produce in all the food orders. You can make deliveries to their location at 6700 Huntley Road - check the days and times at their website, <https://www.worthingtonresourcepantry.org/givehelp>

Although summer has barely begun, we will soon be seeing 'back-to-school' merchandise in the stores. As our kids, teens, college students, teachers, and professors try to wring the most fun out of the next several weeks, many families will struggle with extra expenses when they need to purchase new clothes, shoes, and school supplies for their children, and this may mean less money for food. Our pantries always see an increase in need during the summer, when kids are eating breakfast and lunch at home, but our pantries simultaneously experience a decrease in donations by individuals and groups. You can donate financially to the Worthington Resource Pantry at <https://www.worthingtonresourcepantry.org/donate> and you can donate to the Gladden Pantry in Franklinton at <https://www.gladdenhouse.org/food-pantry>.

Donations of all sorts of healthy non-perishable foods and personal care products are always welcome at both of our supported pantries, or you can use the list below as a guide. YOUR financial contributions or donations of food and toiletries help the Worthington Resource Pantry and the Gladden Food Pantry serve our hungry neighbors in the summer and throughout the year - thank you!

July 7 – canned RED tomatoes, canned WHITE potatoes, and a BLUE box of macaroni & cheese

July 14 – cereal; toothpaste
