THE HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE II

August 9, 2026 | 10:00 a.m.

The Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity, being formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the hallmarks of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy literally is “the work of the people,” and refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

*All hymn numbers correspond to the blue Hymnal 1982 in your pew rack.
The people’s responses are in bold.*

ENTRANCE HYMN

I Sing the Almighty Power of God

No. 398

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider Blessed be God: ✠ Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Presider Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

THE GLORIA

S280

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The collect is the prayer appointed for each Sunday that “collects” or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray. Grant to us, Lord, we pray, the spirit to think and do always those things that are right, that we, who cannot exist without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People Amen.

The people are seated.

✠ LITURGY OF THE WORD ✠

THE FIRST LESSON

Genesis 37:1-4, 12-28

This reading is typically from the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures) which Jesus knew and from which he often referred or quoted.

Jacob settled in the land where his father had lived as an alien, the land of Canaan. This is the story of the family of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a helper to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to their father. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he had made him a long robe with sleeves. But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him. Now his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem. And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." He answered, "Here I am." So he said to him, "Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock; and bring word back to me." So he sent him from the valley of Hebron. He came to Shechem, and a man found him wandering in the fields; the man asked him, "What are you seeking?" "I am seeking my brothers," he said; "tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock." The man said, "They have gone away, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan. They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they conspired to kill him. They said to one another, "Here comes this dreamer. Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild animal has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams." But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, "Let us not take his life." Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him" —that he might rescue him out of their hand and restore him to his father. So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the long robe with sleeves that he wore; and they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it. Then they sat down to eat; and looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying gum, balm, and resin, on their way to carry it down to Egypt. Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh." And his brothers agreed. When some Midianite traders passed by, they drew Joseph up, lifting him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

PSALM OF THE DAY

105, 1-6, 16-22, 45b

Read Responsively by Whole Verse

The psalms are prayers from the Old Testament that Jesus used and cover every mood of humanity's relationship with God and one another.

1 Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name; make known his deeds among the peoples.
2 Sing to him, sing praises to him,
and speak of all his marvelous works.
3 Glory in his holy Name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

4 Search for the Lord and his strength;
continually seek his face.
5 Remember the marvels he has done,
his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,
6 O offspring of Abraham his servant,
O children of Jacob his chosen.

16 Then he called for a famine in the land and destroyed the supply of bread.

17 He sent a man before them,
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

18 They bruised his feet in fetters;
his neck they put in an iron collar.

19 Until his prediction came to pass,
the word of the Lord tested him.

20 The king sent and released him;
the ruler of the peoples set him free.

21 He set him as a master over his household,
as a ruler over all his possessions,

22 To instruct his princes according to his will and to teach his elders wisdom.

45 Hallelujah!

THE SECOND LESSON

Romans 10:5-15

This reading, taken from the New Testament, is typically from a letter (epistle) to the early Church, the Acts of the Apostles, or the Revelation to John.

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that “the person who does these things will live by them.” But the righteousness that comes from faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? “The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The people stand as able at the introduction to the Sequence Hymn.

SEQUENCE HYMN

Jesus, Lover of My Soul

No. 699

The Sequence Hymn moves us toward the summit of the Liturgy of the Word—the reading of the Holy Gospel. Gospel means “good news”—specifically the “good news of Jesus.”

(VV. 1-2 BEFORE THE GOSPEL, VV. 3 AFTER THE GOSPEL)

THE GOSPEL LESSON

Matthew 14:22-33

This reading is taken from one of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus' words and actions.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Catherine M. Thompson

The sermon directly follows the Gospel because it is to be grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

THE NICENE CREED

The word "creed" comes from the Latin "credo" for "I believe." First formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD and confirmed in 381 AD, the Nicene Creed is said at the Holy Eucharist and reflects what Christians believe regarding the relationship between the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit: The Holy Trinity.

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the $\pm$ resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

BCP p. 361

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us to do: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a long prayer with four parts. Each of these four parts corresponds to a different action of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning “Lift up your hearts.”

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

THE SANCTUS

S125

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God and is based on Isaiah 6:3.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We recall God's acts of salvation history. The presider says the “Words of Institution” that Jesus said at the Last Supper.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

Celebrant On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ's death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of the age.

Celebrant Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:
People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

During the following prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. ☩ Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

The Great Amen is when the congregation with a unified great voice concurs with all that the presider has prayed. It is the only "Amen" in all capitals found in the Book of Common Prayer, signifying the greatness of the congregation's response.

Celebrant All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.
People AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

BCP p. 364

We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is an ancient connection.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:
All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

THE INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The people are seated.

All who seek God and a deeper life in Christ are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Please move at the direction of the ushers. You may receive the wafer in your outstretched hands and respond to receiving Communion by saying, "Amen." If you require a gluten-free wafer, please place one arm over your chest to make your need known. Receiving the wafer alone is full participation in the Eucharist. For those who wish to consume wine, please assist in guiding the chalice to your lips. If you prefer to receive a blessing instead of receiving Communion, you may indicate your choice by crossing your arms across your chest. If you are unable to come forward to receive Communion, please notify an usher and it will be brought to you.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENDING FORTH OUR EUCCHARISTIC VISITORS

Celebrant In the name of this congregation we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the Communion of Christ's body and blood.

People We, who are many, are one body, because we all share one bread and one cup.

✠ THE CONCLUDING RITE ✠

THE BLESSING

Celebrant The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, ✠ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

People Amen.

Presentation on Bright Beginnings Sunday, August 9th

Today, at 9:00 am in the Great Hall, Linda Miller and Rev. Angela Furlong will be presenting on our partnership with Bright Beginnings Learning Center in Ponnur, India. Founded in May 2021, by husband-and-wife team, John Vicliff and Sudha Rani, the learning center just celebrated its fifth anniversary. Sixty-three students attend and there are twenty children on the waiting list. Seven students are now attending college level classes! They provide after school tutoring, a daily meal with protein, Christian education, recreational time on play equipment, basic medical care, sewing classes, introductory computer education, and counseling. Please join us and learn more about this thriving ministry and the ways in which we support them.

Record Street Rectory Plaque Dedication

Today, at 11:30 am, the clergy and people of All Saints will gather in front of 113 Record Street in Frederick to dedicate a plaque recognizing that location as the rectory of All Saints from 1878 to 1914, home to both the Rev. Osborn Ingle and the Rev. Douglas Hooff. We offer heartfelt thanks to John W. Ashbury who brought this information to light and to Jill Browning for her assistance in creating the historical marker noting its connection to All Saints. Tee Michel will offer a brief history of the rectory and the rectors who lived there, and we will give thanks to God for those who have served All Saints so faithfully over the years. All are welcome and invited to attend.

Weekly Bible Study on the Appointed Gospel (Zoom)

Our next Bible study will be on Monday, August 10, 2026, when we will study the Gospel for the coming Sunday which is Matthew 15:21-28. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Elaine+ at revprince1986@gmail.com. Anyone wishing to study this Gospel reading for next Sunday may gather on Zoom.

Presentation and Panel Discussion on "The Cultural Impact of Artificial Intelligence on Church and Community"

On behalf of the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland, All Saints will be hosting an event open to everyone on Tuesday, September 1st, at 10:00 am in the Great Hall. The keynote speaker is the Rev. Dr. Michael Delashmutt, Senior Vice President of General Theological Seminary in New York City. His research and writing range widely across Anglican theology, practical theology, and the ways emerging technologies—from information systems to artificial intelligence—are reshaping how people understand knowledge, authority, and religious life. His current research explores the theological implications of artificial intelligence and other emerging technologies for Christian ministry and formation. Following the keynote speech, there will be a question-and-answer session with a panel of experts in the field, including The Rev. Dr. Pan Conrad, Dr. George Dimitoglou, and Dr. Mark A. Thompson, Sr. A light lunch will be provided following the panel discussion. We invite you to join us for this informative session.

Caring for What God Has Entrusted to Us-Creating Your Will:

Stewardship is a lifelong response to God's abundance: the care of all that has been entrusted to us, including what we will leave behind. Preparing or updating your estate plan is a practical act of love for your loved ones and a faithful exercise of that stewardship. This August, several congregations across the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland are observing Make-A-Will Month, joining Episcopalians throughout western, central, and southern Maryland in planning ahead with peace of mind.

Through the partnership with FreeWill, you can create or update your will online, securely and at no cost, in about 20 minutes. Accomplish this by:

1. Attending a FreeWill event on Sunday, September 13, after the 8 am and 10 am services in the Great Hall. Use a parish provided laptop or bring your own laptop, phone, or other device to access the website. A notary will be available on site and childcare will be provided.

2. Using the link below to access FreeWill on the diocese website:

Fellowship Volunteers Needed for 11:15 AM

After Sunday services, we provide an opportunity to gather in the Parish Hall for coffee/tea and treats with fellow parishioners, to visit and see old friends and meet new people. We are looking for one or two additional folks to volunteer 1.5 hours to assist with set-up or clean-up and serving at 11:15 AM. The parish provides food and supplies, and a mentor will assist with training and answer questions. Volunteers rotate so assignments are about once a month. Please contact Betty Briesel-Ludwig at bettybrieseludwig@gmail.com.

EfM Registration is Now Open:

Education for Ministry (EfM) is a program designed to nurture spiritual growth and explore one's faith journey. The small community of 12 participants is facilitated by a mentor, and meets weekly to learn, discuss and reflect on readings for that week. This group will begin their work together in September, but registration is now open. For more information, please see Ben Green or contact the church office at churchoffice@allsaintsmd.org.

August Outreach-Medical Debt Relief:

We at All Saints are partnering with several local faith communities to raise $103,172.00 by October 31st, in order to relieve more than 14,000 of our neighbors here in Frederick County who collectively owe $15 million dollars. Impossible as this may seem, we are working with a national 501-C3 non profit, "Undue Medical Debt" which, supported by donations, buys large bundled medical debts at a steep discount. A donation of just $1.00 on average erases $100.00 of debt!!

Recipients of this campaign are those with debt amounts of more than 5% of their income, and/or earn at or below 400% of the federal poverty level. Let's help to relieve them of the crushing weight of health care bills they cannot afford to pay!

Special Challenge Camp Day #2

Mark your calendars now for the next Special Challenge Camp Day, at the Bishop Claggett Center on Thursday, October 20th! The theme will be Fall & Halloween and the Campers and volunteers are certainly going to have lots of fun. Activities are still being planned but currently they include: Dog Show, Chapel & Eucharist, Lunch, Zipline, Pumpkin Painting, Arts & Crafts/Woodworking, Campfire & S'mores. If you'd like to sign up now to volunteer, just email June Miller. Around October 1st, a SignUp Genius will be shared by the Camp Director, Sara Yoe+. For more information you can visit claggettcenter.org/special-challenge-days. For more information, please use this link: <http://claggettcenter.org/special-challenge-days>.

The Getting Ahead Program:

Thank you!! to everyone at All Saints' who has participated in and supported the Getting Ahead Program over the years. United Way's Getting Ahead Program does so much to help the working poor in the Frederick Community, by teaching them life skills that they can use to become independent and self-sufficient. All Saints' has been providing meals for the participants and attendees to enjoy during their training sessions. It was a huge help and very much appreciated. When we notified United Way of Frederick that we would be focusing on other programs, our contact person there said, "We truly appreciate All Saints' support and participation in the Getting Ahead Program. It has been a pleasure working with all of you, and we are grateful for all you have contributed to the program." After many years of dedicated support for this program, we have decided to focus on the many other programs and opportunities at All Saints' and within the Frederick Community. Many thanks to the ministries, parishioners, individuals, families and clergy that have supported the Getting Ahead Program. For any questions, please contact Katy Ackland, kackland921@aol.com.
