

LOCAL MISSIONS

L.O.V.E. (Loving Orphans Via Everyone)

These ministry partners are all serving children and families who are impacted by the foster system. They serve to equip the church, support and empower families, and to show the love of Christ to children and families in this space.

AWC Centers

www.awccenters.com

Contact: bit.ly/Julie-Goudge

AWC Centers (formerly Any Woman Can) is a Christ-Centered ministry that provides a safe environment where people are empowered to make informed decisions on unplanned pregnancy, sexual health, and mental health concerns.

Since its inception, AWC has been driven by the central purpose of saving lives for the Kingdom. Through services such as STI tests/treatment, pregnancy tests, first trimester ultrasounds, and counseling sessions, they actively work to restore the physical and mental health of their clients. AWC's commitment to accessibility, judgment-free environments, and the initiation of spiritual discussions reflects their broader goal of providing spiritual healing. They strive to create opportunities for God to work through us, redeeming lives for His Kingdom.

Service Opportunities:

- Volunteer Client Advocate
- Volunteer to assist with administrative tasks
- Man 2 Man Mentors
- In-kind donations (diapers, formula, blankets, clothing, etc.)

Chosen Care

www.chosen.care

Contact: bit.ly/fpcmissions-contact

Through the use of Gospel-centered care practices backed by science, Chosen Care addresses the holistic needs of both children and their families. At the heart of our model of care is parent coaching, which prioritizes attachment and connection to create healing. Through coaching, trauma-informed education therapy, and personalized case management, Chosen's care managers do whatever is necessary to ensure families can thrive together.

The goal of Chosen is to ensure that families stay together, which means that adoptions are not dissolved, foster placements are not disrupted, and children stay with their biological families whenever possible. Since 2016, families who have gone through Chosen's programs for 6 months or more have experienced zero dissolutions or disruptions.

The overarching vision of Chosen is to have every child thriving in a family. By prioritizing attachment and offering intensive case management using evidence-based methodologies, they are setting hurting children on a path of healing.

Service Opportunities:

- Connect through Prayer
- Meet practical needs that are sometimes barriers to stability
- Help spread the message of healing and hope offered by Chosen Care.

Connections Homes

www.connections homes.org

Contact: bit.ly/fpcmissions-contact

The mission of Connections Homes is to prevent poverty and homelessness for youth aging out of foster care by connecting them to a permanent mentoring family. Their vision is to empower youth who were without a family to thrive in their life and impact the world from the security of healthy and redemptive connection with a family. They work to address the needs of young adults who have aged out of foster care by connecting them to a relationship with a family which provides the mentorship, love, and security they desperately need to thrive.

Service Opportunities:

- Become a mentoring family
- Support this work in prayer

Local Missions Partners: L.O.V.E. (Loving Orphans Via Everyone)

FPC Love Initiative and Grandfamilies

Contact: bit.ly/fpcmissions-contact or bit.ly/Molly-Schluter

The FPC L.O.V.E. Initiative (Loving Orphans Via Everyone) sprung from a partnership with the South Texas Alliance For Orphans. This is a ministry dedicated to caring for foster families within the FPC Congregation and equipping new foster parents. This ministry also seeks to show God's love, care, and concern through GrandFamilies: grandparents in need as they raise their grandchildren; helping to establish a safe environment through relational, physical, and spiritual support during a time of transition.

One by One Ministries

www.onebyoneusa.org

Contact: bit.ly/Anne-Scates

One by One Ministries is a faith based mentoring ministry to new and expectant moms in San Antonio. Their mission is to mentor and educate new moms to parent well. It is their hope that all moms will accept God's love and parent well so that children thrive. They want all moms to know that God loves her, that she has value and worth, and that God has a plan for her life and the life of her baby. One by One can equip the local church to reach out to moms who are asking for help by supporting, educating, and connecting moms to your church and opening up the body of Christ to her family.

Service Opportunities:

- Serve as a mentor to expectant and new moms. Mentors make an 18-month commitment to walk with a mom beginning prenatally and continuing until the baby's first birthday.
- Be a prayer partner for a mentor and mom
- Serve as an area coordinator to assist One by One staff with training and managing volunteers.

San Antonio Marriage Initiative (SAMI)

www.samarrriage.org

Contact: bit.ly/Downie-Mickler

The San Antonio Marriage Initiative exists for one purpose: They believe God desires to redeem and restore marriages in San Antonio by His power and for His glory. Their mission is to inspire, resource, and empower others with a shared vision for marriage and family. Our journey began with the core principles to listen, learn, build, and grow among communities of leaders, churches, and couples, and through this, they have strengthened marriages and families across San Antonio and more recently, in cities across the country.

Service Opportunities:

- Advocate for healthy marriages through leading in marriage ministry at FPC
- Participate in FPC Marriage Ministry as mentors with Merge Modified or the Foundations Marriage Enrichment Class

South Texas Alliance for Orphans (STAFO)

www.alliance4orphans.org

Contact: bit.ly/Molly-Schluter

As Christians, we have a Biblical call to care for orphans and love our neighbors as ourselves. Also known as "The Alliance," they walks alongside the church to serve, equip and resource leaders to fulfill the Biblical call effectively, efficiently and in collaboration with organizations within our community. Their vision is to see every child is part of a safe and thriving family. The Alliance's mission fills the gap between the church community, overburdened local foster care system and local organizations.

Service Opportunities:

- Wrap around foster families with meals, help with errands, babysitting, donations, tutoring or commit to interceding in prayer.
- Join the Alliance Prevention Network to meet family's tangible needs and begin transformational relationships with families on the brink of entering the foster care system.
- Fill Caseworker kits to serve children at removal
- Volunteer at Parent's Night Out events
- Serve in hospitality at training events held at FPC
- Serve with one of STAFO's collaborating organizations to mentor, advocate, meet tangible needs, or donate skills, services or business to families.
- Donate and serve at KinMart to ensure children placed in kinship families (grandfamilies) have needed school supplies

LOCAL MISSIONS

Next Generation

Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) – Ashlee Smith

www.alamofca.org

Contact: ashleesmith@fcsa.org

In 1954, Don McClanen (Oklahoma) saw that the world was idolizing sports figures. He thought that if athletes and coaches who were Christians would use their influence for Christ it could change the world. FCA San Antonio continues to work with the vision to see the world transformed by Jesus Christ through the influence of coaches and athletes. They focus on evangelism and discipleship through Campus Huddles in the San Antonio area, where thousands of students and coaches are impacted each week.

Service Opportunities:

- Serve as a character coach for a local college team
- Volunteer at UIW and Trinity Events and Chapter nights
- Help connect with other people in their circles for support
- Sponsor a college student to help send them to our College Weekend in February and September
