CONGREGATIONAL LEADERSHIP

The life of the congregation is enriched by the many different kinds of service that members offer. This represents an expression of Paul's great picture of the church as the body of Christ, with each member contributing to the health of the whole. (1 Corinthians 12)

Congregational leadership is an important area of service in the church. Each year, members of First Presbyterian Church are called by the congregation to exercise a ministry of leadership within the church as Elders, Deacons, and Trustees. These are distinctive leadership roles, calling for particular gifts and commitment.

SELECTION

Our collection of Elders, Deacons, and Trustees is the result of a large pool of consideration. Furthermore, our selection has been based on two key attributes—a serving heart and the talents and skills that each person brings to the FPC family and leadership.

The following leadership positions have been selected and approved by congregational vote:

Elder Class of 2029: One

Trustee Class of 2028: One

ELDER IN CLASS 2029

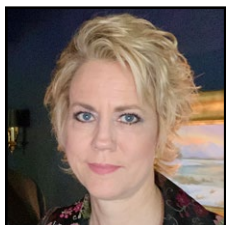

GARDNER PEAVY

Gardner Peavy is a San Antonio native and principal at SageView Partners, a commercial real estate investment firm focused on office properties across San Antonio and Austin. He has worked in the industry since 1998 and holds a BBA from Baylor University and an MBA from TCU.

Gardner and his wife Jill have been married for 26 years and are the proud parents of three sons—Kyle, Keller, and Caleb. Kyle recently graduated from Texas A&M and is joining Mauze Construction, Keller is continuing his business studies at Texas A&M, and Caleb is finishing high school in San Antonio. Jill runs her own retail business, and the family enjoys an active life together that includes travel, the outdoors, and entertaining friends.

Gardner has been at First Presbyterian Church for a number of years, serving in Men's Ministry and on the FPC Property Committee, where his commercial real estate background has been a natural fit. He has a long connection to both YoungLife and Pine Cove Camp, ministries close to his heart. This is his second term as Elder, a role he approaches with deep gratitude and a commitment to investing in the life of the congregation.

TRUSTEE IN CLASS 2028

AMY ABBEY ROBINSON*

A lifelong San Antonian, Amy Robinson has been a member of First Presbyterian Church for over thirty years. Amy is married to Charles and is the mother of Ramsey (27) and Charlie (25).

She currently serves as a Director for the First Presbyterian Church Foundation. She previously served as Moderator for Circle 14 and as a member of the Worship Committee. Outside of church, Amy and Charles lead Robinson Value Management, a boutique investment management firm. When she is not in the office or at church, she serves as a board member of the Battle of Flowers Foundation®, a member of the Battle of Flowers Association®, and a member of the Advisory Council of the University of Texas, College of Liberal Arts. Amy is honored to serve First Presbyterian as a Trustee and looks forward to supporting the church's mission in our community.
