SUMMARY

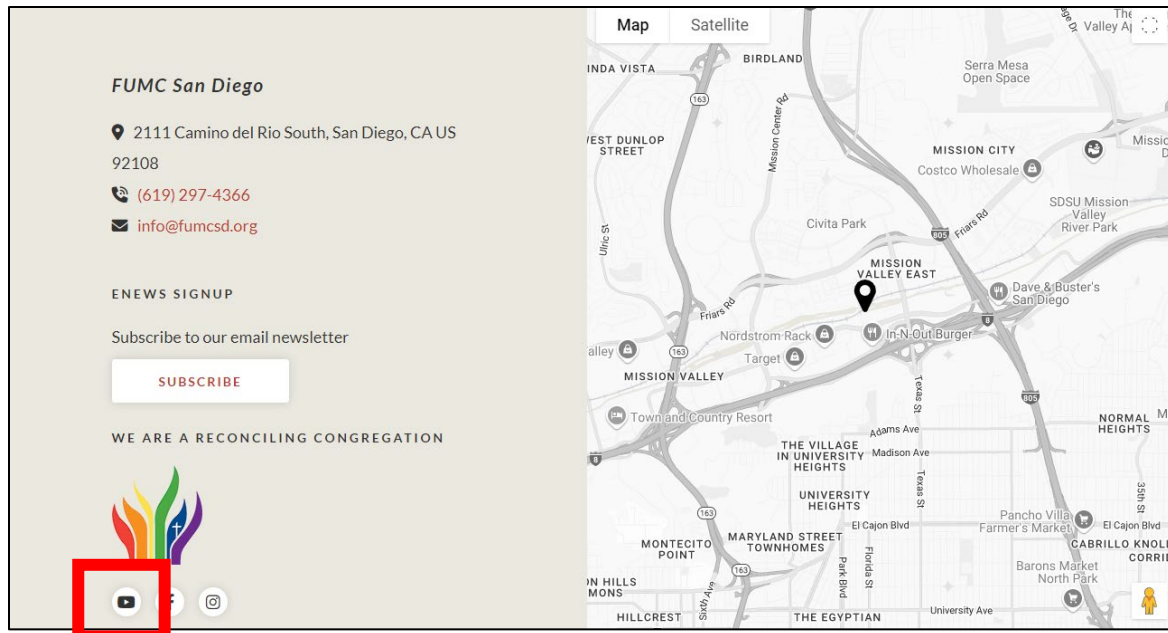

In this episode of Perspectives Podcast, Rev. Trudy and Rev. Brittany are back, continuing their discussion of how travel changes us, and specifically how the Sankofa Pilgrimage of First Church San Diego has been changing participants' perspectives on racism throughout US history, including the experiences of many groups throughout the country today. The two clergymen take a look at the journey that they took along with 24 pilgrims in July 2024 through northeastern states to look at America's origin story and how our northern states played a role in racism in the United States.

Poll Everywhere (used in Tapestry): fumcsd.org/poll

1. Poll Everywhere is the online survey service that allows us to answer questions during Tapestry. You can access the First Church Poll Everywhere link on your phone or tablet. To access, you can use the QR code that is displayed during Tapestry, or you can type in a web address to your preferred web browser: fumcsd.org/poll
2. To use the QR code, open the camera app on your phone or tablet. Then point the device toward the QR code. Instead of taking a picture, tap on the link that pops up on your screen. Some phones are not able to read QR codes.

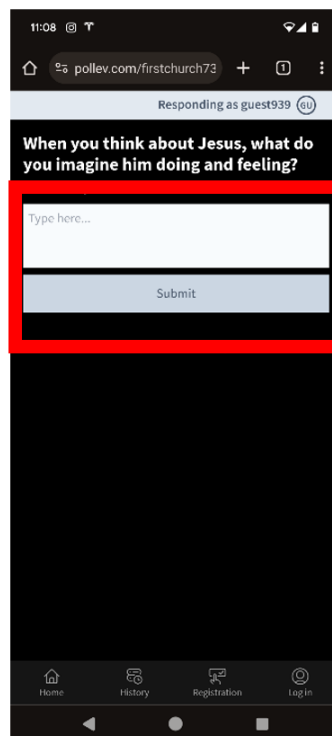

3. If a link does not pop up for you, open your web browser and type in fumcsd.org/poll
4. You may receive a message asking you to introduce yourself. You can type in your name and click the Continue button if you'd like, or you can select Skip.

5. When the Poll Everywhere page loads, you may see a screen indicating a poll is not yet live.

6. When a question is live, you will see it on your screen. You will be able to type your answer (or make a selection if it is multiple choice). Click Submit to publish your answer.

7. Sometimes you may need to refresh your screen to see the next question when it goes live. In both the Chrome and Safari web browsers, you can do this by swiping your finger down on the screen.
