THE DANGER OF RELIGION WITHOUT RELATIONSHIP | NOVEMBER 10, 2024

SERMON RECAP

The penalty of our sins has been paid. How then, as debt-free people, are we to live? There is danger in religion without relationship.

THE LEAD IN

- Have you ever been forgiven a debt or paid off a significant debt and had the weight of it taken off your shoulders? How did you celebrate?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read Colossians 2:16-23. In this text, where do you see religious traps and pride in disguise? What are the traps? How is the pride disguised?
- What does verse 19 mean and how is it the answer to avoiding the traps and pride seen throughout these verses?

GOING DEEPER

- When it comes to your relationship with Christ, do you ever feel the temptation to “look the part” to other believers around you? Do you serve so that you can feel like you’re doing your duty? Does worship feel like a performance? Is fellowship more of a requirement or a joy? How does Jesus offer us a better way?
- Tom said, “False humility draws your praise to that person, true humility draws your praise to Jesus Christ.” How does false humility show up in your life? What needs to be sacrificed to turn from it and be truly humble?

PRAYER

- Pray for an ever-increasing desire for Christ so that you will not “lose connection with the head” and also the body of believers that God has placed in your life to help you grow in Him.
