SERMON RECAP

We have been given a new identity - one found in Christ. As we learn to live in light of this identity, we learn how to live with each other in perfect unity.

THE LEAD IN

- The texts we'll be studying the next few weeks shift into how we live together. What different types of community are you in? Why have you chosen those as the ones you give your time to?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read Colossians 3:12-14. Why did Paul use the words “clothe” and “put on” in this section? Consider the context from verses 5-11.
- Love is emphasized as the most important thing to clothe ourselves with, why might that be? How does love bind them all together in perfect unity?

GOING DEEPER

- Nick said, “How we live flows out of who we are; being leads to doing.” Who are you? Answering honestly, what is your identity? With that as your identity, how does it lead to action in your life?
- Considering the list in this passage (compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, bearing with, forgiveness, love), discuss how these Christ-like qualities are present in the relationships among you in your group? Which ones might you need to grow in?

PRAYER

- Pray this list over each other, that you each will be rooted in your identity in Christ and growing in the qualities of Christ.
