SERMON RECAP

Paul exhorts us to do all things, not just some, in the name of Christ with thanksgiving.

THE LEAD IN

- Fill in the blank: “Whatever you do_____.” What are some of the most common “whatever you do...” statements you’ve ever heard?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read Colossians 3:12-17. How does verse 17 wrap up this section? What common themes do you see running through these verses?
- In 1 Corinthians 10:23-24 and 31-33 how do we see the way we live and the words we use impact those around us? What does Paul say the ultimate goal of our actions should be?

GOING DEEPER

- In whom or in what is your identity found? When you speak and act, who or what do the consequences (good or bad) of your words and actions reflect upon?
- Come up with a list of things you value in your life, it could be many things. Now order them. Seeing them ordered are you convicted on anything? Do any of the things you listed seem over or under valued? Might you need to make some changes?

PRAYER

- Pray prayers of thanksgiving to Jesus for the work He has done in you and the blessings He has given you.
