THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

As a family of forgiven people, we are honored that you have joined with us today as we seek to develop people who delight in God and declare His glory—from our neighborhoods to the nations. Our prayer is that you will connect with God through Christ this morning and that this would be the beginning of a deep connection with other believers as well. Please take a moment to fill out the Communication Card located in the chair pocket near you and place it in an offering pedestal in the back of the Worship Center.

Peace Like a River

John 16:16-33

Jesus offers His disciples an unshakable hope rooted in His death, resurrection, and victory over the world. Through Christ, our sorrow is transformed into lasting joy, we are welcomed into the loving heart of the Father, and we receive peace that does not depend upon circumstances. Though we may have trials and tribulations in this world, the peace of Christ flows like a river because our risen Savior has overcome the world, and we are more than conquerors through Him.

1. The Birth of Immovable Joy

2. The Heart of the Father

3. The Peace that Transcends Tribulation

"O Friends, Christ has peace enough and to spare! He is, Himself, personally, the deep well-spring of an endless peace and, therefore, we can understand why we always find peace in Him. One calm and quiet man has sometimes spread peace through what otherwise would have been terrified company. One Paul standing in the sinking ship saves all from ruin by the majesty of His immovable courage. And one Christ—such a Christ as ours—in the midst of a Church turns a horde of cowards into an army of heroes! His infinite peace breathes peace into our vacillating spirits. We rest because we see how He rests."

~ Charles Spurgeon
