

PASTOR COREY 2026 BOOK CLUB

Read just one book, or read all eleven, and join Pastor Corey for a monthly book study. The books were selected to reach a wide variety of interests, from authors who are diverse in their thinking and theology, and are geared toward teens and adults. There are two meeting opportunities:

10:00 AM at the Far Hills Campus or
6:00 PM at Bock Family Brewing

(8150 Washington Village Dr, Centerville) No purchase required at Bock Family Brewing, but it is highly encouraged since they are hosting us! Food and beverages are available for purchase.

FEB 26: LOVE MATTERS MORE

Jared Byas challenges Christians to stop winning arguments and start loving like Jesus; showing that the heart of faith isn't having all the right answers but living and giving love boldly and without judgment.

MAR 26: BECOMING A PERSON OF WELCOME

Laura Baghdassarian Murray invites you to transform everyday encounters into profound spiritual hospitality by cultivating a posture of welcome rooted in God's inclusive love.

APR 30: BETTER WAYS TO READ THE BIBLE

Zach Lambert helps you move beyond the common, harmful ways people read Scripture by offering fresh, healing lenses that invite you to engage the Bible with curiosity and love.

MAY 28: LITURGY OF THE ORDINARY

Tish Harrison Warren shows how the routines and small habits of our daily lives, like making the bed or brushing our teeth, can become windows into God's presence and invitation to worship.

JUN 25: THE BIG RELIEF

David Zahl offers a refreshing and deeply humane invitation to let go of performance, perfectionism, and exhaustion by discovering the life-changing power of God's unearned grace.

JUL 23: ON THE SPECTRUM

Daniel Bowman Jr. blends memoir, theology, and lived experience to shatter misconceptions about autism and illuminate how neurodiversity deepens our understanding of faith and what it means to be fully human.

PASTOR COREY 2026 BOOK CLUB

Read just one book, or read all eleven, and join Pastor Corey for a monthly book study. The books were selected to reach a wide variety of interests, from authors who are diverse in their thinking and theology, and are geared toward teens and adults. There are two meeting opportunities:

10:00 AM at the Far Hills Campus or
6:00 PM at Bock Family Brewing

(8150 Washington Village Dr, Centerville) No purchase required at Bock Family Brewing, but it is highly encouraged since they are hosting us! Food and beverages are available for purchase.

AUG 27: THE WIDENING OF GOD'S MERCY

Father-and-son biblical scholars Richard and Christopher Hays invite readers into a fresh, compassionate retelling of Scripture's grand narrative, arguing that God's grace has continually expanded across history.

SEPT 24: WE SURVIVED THE END OF THE WORLD

Steven Charleston blends Indigenous wisdom with prophetic insight to show how Native American experiences of survival and hope can guide us through our own crises and inspire a vision for living in turbulent times.

OCT 22: THE TEARS OF THINGS

Richard Rohr offers a deeply pastoral and wisdom-filled journey through the voices of the biblical prophets that helps readers move from anger and despair to compassion and hope.

NOV 12: HELL BENT

Brian Recker offers a transformative re-examination of Christian faith by showing how fear of hell has distorted spirituality and inviting readers to embrace a loving, inclusive faith rooted in Jesus' message of grace.

DEC 10: MERE CHRISTIANITY

C.S. Lewis uses clear logic and heartfelt insight to invite skeptics and believers alike into the core truths of the Christian faith—explaining God, Jesus, morality, and what it means to live a life shaped by love and reason.

WAYS TO GET THE BOOKS:

Buy on Amazon

The church library will also have one complete set of the books available for checkout.

Buy on Thriftbooks