

Sermon Title: Whom Shall I Fear?

Scripture text: Isaiah 8:11-22

Outline:

What does the fear of man look like?

What does the fear of God look like?

What has God given us to help us with our fears?

Theme: What does it look like to fear God instead of man?

#fearofGod #dealingwithanxiety

Questions:

Context/Theme

1. Can you think of examples in which you've compromised convictions due to pressure from others?
2. How do cultural narratives or "conspiracies" influence our fears today, like in Isaiah's time?

You

3. Have you ever experienced God as a sanctuary during a fearful time? Share.
4. What does the fear of man look like in your life? (e.g. people-pleasing, control, stress)?
5. God tells Isaiah not to fear what others fear. What would that look like for you this week?
6. What is one fear you want to surrender to God this week?

Others

7. Who can you encourage this week who is walking through fear or anxiety?
8. How can we help others see God as a refuge rather than a threat?