Eternal Goodness, deliver us from evil;
Eternal Power, be our support;
Eternal Wisdom, scatter the darkness of our ignorance;
Eternal Pity, have mercy upon us;
that with all our heart and mind and soul and strength we may seek your face and be brought by your infinite mercy to your holy presence through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

¶ Opening Sentences

¶ Hymn 39 \(see page 13\)

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

FAITHFULNESS

❖ Prayer of Confession

God of freedom,
 Jesus came to bring good news,
 and embody your coming reign.
 We confess that we have ignored his message.
 We remain captive to sin,
 bruised and broken by our transgressions.
 We are convinced the news is always bad
 and that we are always stuck where we are.
 Help us to hear the truth of the gospel.
 Inspire us with your liberating word.
 Let your Spirit cleanse us and change us so that we may receive all that you have declared in Jesus Christ our Lord.

silent prayer

Holy One, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

❖ Declaration of Forgiveness

Believe the Good News. In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

AnthemSteal Away*

arr. John Rutter

Steal away, steal away, steal away to Jesus;
 Steal away, steal away home,
 I ain't got long to stay here.

My Lord, he calls me,
 He calls me by the thunder;
 The trumpet sounds within-a my soul;
 I ain't got long to stay here.

Oh green trees are bending,
 Poor sinner stands a-trembling;
 The trumpet sounds within-a my soul;
 Hallelujah, hallelujah, Lord.
 I ain't got long to stay here.

† Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

Do you believe in God?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died, and was buried;
 he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;
 he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
 the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People*The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
 Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
 for Thine is the Kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Offering*OffertoryHeavenly Light*

Alexander Kopylov
(1854-1911)
arr. Peter Wilhousky

Sent from heaven, thy rays were given
On great and small to shine, O Light Divine.
May each soul in sorrow's night see the heavenly light.
Thou blessing to all creation, lead us to our salvation.
All those whose feet may falter, lead unto the sacred altar.
O, shine from above, Divine Light of love.
Show us the way unto our God, we pray.
Thou our beacon and guide shalt be.
O Light Divine, we praise Thee.

English text by Alice Mattullath

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

NEGRO SPIRITUALS ROYALTY FUND

Today's worship service includes traditional Negro Spiritual music. The Black composers of this music are unknown to history and therefore unable to receive royalties directed to their estates for the use of their songs. To remedy this inequity, a Session-approved fund has been created where we will collect voluntary "royalties" for using this music. Anyone may donate to the fund by going to the saintphilip.net homepage and selecting Giving, then Make a Contribution, and selecting Negro Spirituals as the fund. Members can also access this page on the St. Philip Life app (also linked to from the homepage). You may also contribute by writing a check with Negro Spirituals in the memo line and placing it in the offering plate or mailing it to the church office. This small gesture of reparation seeks to help heal the long history of injury to Black persons. Contributions received over the course of the year will be donated annually to a local organization supporting Black musical traditions. For more information, also visit https://www.nats.org/History\_of\_American\_Negro\_Spiritual.html.

MUSIC NOTES

Today's organ voluntaries are representative of a golden age of organ playing and building in both North Germany and France during the late Baroque age. Dietrich Buxtehude's F-major Praeludium, heard at the opening of worship, falls into two sections: an improvisatory prelude and a lively fugue, both of which display his singular rhythmic wit and skill with counterpoint. Louis-Nicolas Clérambault served as organist for two prominent Paris churches and was also a chamber musician in the household of Madame de Maintenon, long-time paramour of Louis XIV. His organ works follow the flow of the Catholic mass, with individual movements bearing titles that refer to their particular stop combinations. The "caprice" heard at the close of worship brings his second suite to a spirited close on the "Grands Jeux," the full reed choruses of the organ.

Originally titled "Antiphon," the familiar words by English poet George Herbert (1593-1633) have invited composers across the centuries to capture their declamatory spirit through music. Diverting from his normally more intimate style, Herbert drew inspiration from fellow poet and close friend John Donne, viewed as more the orator of the two. Today's introduction brings ceremonial fanfare through strong choral statements accented by two handbells.

The traditional spiritual "Steal Away" was originally written by Wallace Willis and his daughter Minerva, two enslaved people of a Choctaw freedman in the old Indian Territory, sometime before 1862. Like other spirituals of that time, the text contains several hidden codes that reflect a deep faith while also relating to escape via the Underground Railroad. John Rutter's modern arrangement brings the text's vivid imagery to life through trumpet fanfares and praise-filled "hallelujahs," showing the power of spirituals like this to inspire across time, nationality, and race.

Though he was never accepted into the major conservatories, the Russian musician Alexander Kopylov studied privately with notable composers such as Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov and was deeply influenced by his years singing and teaching in the Imperial Court Choir—a model for the more famous Vienna Boys Choir. His piece "Heavenly Light" unfolds at an unhurried pace, favoring gently evolving harmony and texture over dramatic contrast, and pairs beautifully with the added English text to offer a tender prayer for guidance and salvation.

Hello Everyone,

My name is Cara Biddle. I am a member of St. Philip, and I am part of the Social Justice and Peacemaking Committee. I am starting a group text message and email chain focused on immigration enforcement to share information about opportunities in Houston to support our migrant communities in the face of ICE threats. ## Hymn 462

I Love to Tell the Story

1 I love to tell the sto - ry of un - seen things a - bove,
 2 I love to tell the sto - ry; 'tis pleas - ant to re - peat
 3 I love to tell the sto - ry, for those who know it best of Je - sus and his glo - ry, of Je - sus and his love.

 what seems, each time I tell it, more won - der - ful - ly sweet!
 seem hun - ger - ing and thirst-ing to hear it, like the rest.

I love to tell the sto - ry, be - cause I know 'tis true;
 I love to tell the sto - ry, for some have nev - er heard
 And when, in scenes of glo - ry, I sing the new, new song, it sat - is - fies my long - ings as noth - ing else could do.

 the mes - sage of sal - va - tion from God's own ho - ly Word.
 'twill be the old, old sto - ry that I have loved so long.

This text is drawn from the second part of a fifty-stanza poem on the life of Christ written in 1866, during the author's recovery from a serious illness. The tune named for her first appeared three years later, and the composer was responsible for the creation of the refrain.

Refrain

I love to tell the sto - ry; 'twill be my theme in glo - ry to tell the old, old sto - ry of Je - sus and his love.

Hymn 463

How Firm a Foundation

It seems odd now to think of singing this text to ADESTE FIDELES, but mainline churches did so well into the 20th century because of a cultural bias against shape note music. The vigor of the present tune seems especially right for the final line's reference to Hebrews 13:5.

TEXT: "K" in John Rippon's A Selection of Hymns, 1787, alt.
MUSIC: American folk melody; Funk's Genuine Church Music, 1832, alt.
