

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

DECEMBER 21, 2025

Preparation for Worship

*When you step out into the darkness,
May you see.*

*See how even a single candle in a window is enough to pierce the dark and guide you home.
See planets half a billion miles away reflect the sun's light, a promise that it's still there.
See that no matter how long and cold and dark the night may be, the Light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it.*

Love Came Down at Christmas (excerpt)

Love came down at Christmas,
Love all lovely, Love divine;
Love was born at Christmas,
Stars and Angels gave the sign.

Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus

STUTTGART

◊ Prayer of Confession

God of the future,
 you are coming in power to bring all nations under your rule.
 We confess that we have not expected your kingdom,
 for we live casual lives, ignoring your promised judgment.
 We accept lies as truth,
 exploit neighbors,
 abuse the earth,
 and refuse your justice and peace.
 In your mercy, forgive us.
 Grant us wisdom to welcome your way,
 and to seek things that will endure
 when Christ comes to judge the world.

silent prayer

◊ Response

Wait for the Lord, whose day is near.

Wait for the Lord; be strong; take heart!

Christmas-Tide

Bob Chilcott
 (b. 1955)

Lullee, lullay, I could not love thee more
 If thou wast Christ the King.
 Now tell me, how did Mary know
 That in her womb should sleep and grow
 The Lord of everything?

Lullee, Lullay, an angel stood with her who said,
 'That which doth stir like summer in thy side
 Shall save the world from sin.
 Then stable, hall and inn
 Shall cherish Christmas-tide.'

Lullee, lullay, and so it was that day.
 And did she love Him more because an angel came
 To prophesy His name?
 Ah no, not so, she could not love Him more,
 But loved Him just the same.

Lullee, lullee, lullee, lullay.

ISAIAH 9

♦ Affirmation of Faith

Phil. 2:5-11

Christ Jesus,
 though he was in the form of God,
 did not regard equality with God
 as something to be exploited,
 but emptied himself,
 taking the form of a servant,
 being born in human likeness.
 And being found in human form
 he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death
 – even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus
 every knee should bend,
 in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
 and every tongue should confess to the glory of God:
 Jesus Christ is Lord! Amen.

Prayers of the PeopleLord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
 Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 and forgive us our debts,
 as we forgive our debtors.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil;
 for Thine is the Kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

The Infinite Shining Heavens
From "Songs of Travel"

Ralph Vaughan Williams
(1872-1958)

The infinite shining heavens
Rose, and I saw in the night
Uncountable angel stars
Showering sorrow and light.

I saw them distant as heaven,
Dumb and shining and dead,
And idle stars of the night
Were dearer to me than bread.

Night after night in my sorrow
The stars looked over the sea,
Till lo! I looked in the dusk
And a star had come down to me.

Robert Louis Stevenson (1850-1894)

♦ Prayer of Thanksgiving

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We thank you, O God, for the many gifts you have given to us.
And we give you thanks for the opportunity to share those gifts.

Give us grace as we respond with gratitude and love, sharing all that we have and all that we are with the world you have created.

In the name of Jesus Christ our coming Lord. Amen.

FLOWERS

The flowers are given today by Guy and Melissa Aldrich to the glory of God and in loving memory of his father and best friend, G. Frank Aldrich, Jr.

WORSHIP NOTES

Today, we honor many years of faithful service of our nursery caregivers, Gabriela Rodarte and Denise Sanchez. With deep gratitude, we celebrate and wish them well as they pursue new opportunities in the new year. Denise has been serving at St. Philip since September 2011 and Gabriela joined us in November 2022.

Today's Lectionary readings:

- Isaiah 7:10–16—The young woman will bear a child and name him Immanuel.
- Psalm 80:1–7, 17–19—Restore us, O God; let your face shine, and save us.
- Romans 1:1–7—Paul greets the saints in Rome; Jesus is the promised Son of God.
- Matthew 1:18–25—Mary is with child; an angel visits Joseph; Jesus is “God with us.”

MUSIC NOTES

Daniel Pinkham, longtime organist at King's Chapel in Boston, left a large body of music for the organ, including a colorful yet concise set of variations on "Veni, Emmanuel" that serves as today's opening voluntary. Its straightforward yet bracing musical language adds a sense of expectation and mystery to this familiar Advent melody.

Originally titled "Christmastide" in an 1893 publication, the poem "Love Came Down at Christmas" by Christina Rossetti has been set to music in a variety of ways, becoming a familiar carol for the Advent season. This choral-like setting by composer Leo Sowerby, who was often called the "Dean of American church music" in the mid-20th century, mirrors the simple sincerity found in the text through gently flowing complementary vocal lines.

English composer Bob Chilcott, a prominent figure in 20th-century choral music, maintains a foothold in choral libraries around the world through his care for and depiction of the text he works with. One of his many beloved Christmas pieces, "Christmas-tide" tells the story of Mary's unwavering love for her child from the perspective of another young mother and her newborn baby.

The cycle "Songs of Travel" by fellow English composer Ralph Vaughan Williams, explores the journey of a world-weary yet resolute traveler and his experiences. "The Infinite Shining Heavens," the sixth of eight musical chapters captured in song, reflects on the immutability of nature, specifically the timelessness of the stars in the night sky—a scene perhaps shared between the unnamed traveler and the shepherds in the field watching over their flock by night.

Today's closing voluntary is drawn from a set of versets (or variations) on Martin Luther's Advent chorale Gelobet seist du, Jesu Christ ("Praise be to You, Jesus Christ"). Its composer Samuel Scheidt was one of the leading lights of German Protestant church music in the first half of the 17th century.

Hymn 83

Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus

1. Come, thou long - ex - pect - ed Je - sus, born to set thy peo - ple free;
 2. Is - rael's strength and con - so - la - tion, hope of all the earth thou art;
 3. Born thy peo - ple to de - liv - er, born a child and yet a king, from our fears and sins re - lease us; let us find our rest in thee.

 born to reign in us for - ev - er, now thy gra - cious king - dom bring.
 by thine all - suf - fi - cient mer - it raise us to thy glo - rious throne.

With its opening "Come," this hymn sounds the note of entreaty and invitation that characterizes the Advent season (from the Latin adventus = "coming"). Its blending of memory and hope helps us to give voice to our present faith as we stand between the past and the future.

One of the great virtues of scriptural paraphrases is that they bring fresh understanding and appreciation to familiar passages. This adaptation of a customary Advent text, Isaiah 9:2-7, provides an effective example of how revisited verses can take on new life when recast.

By employing an energetic Irish folk song for its melody, this ballad-like paraphrase of the Magnificat, Mary's song at her meeting with her relative Elizabeth (Luke 1:46-55), recaptures both the wonder and the faith of the young woman who first recognized what God was doing.
