

Missional Intersections

ACT 8:26-40; ISA 53:7-8; 1PET 3:15; PS 37:23-24

INTRODUCTION:

Who did you run into at the mall?

That's no _____.

✪ God moves _____ toward those who are ready to hear.

1. Philip was _____ to intersect paths with a specific man. (8:26-33)

- An _____ directed Philip to a certain location on the southern road to Gaza. (26)
- Philip _____; there he met the Ethiopian royal court accountant. (27)
- The man was sitting in his chariot reading an _____ manuscript. (28)
- The _____ directed Philip to engage with the man in conversation. (29-31)
- The passage that the man was reading was _____. (32-33)

2. That man _____ and was _____. (8:34-39)

- The man _____ an insightful question. (34)
- Philip began at that text and shared the _____ about Jesus. (35)
- The man wanted to be _____. (36)
- Philip baptized the man alongside of _____. (38)
- The man went his way with _____. (39b)

3. Philip continued to _____ the gospel... (8:39-40)

- _____ the Spirit moved him and ... (39a)
- to _____ he encountered along the way. (40)

CONCLUSION:

- “Evangelism is joining a _____ that the Spirit is already having with another person.” Darrell W. Johnson
- God directs the _____ of those who are committed to the mission. (PS 37:23-24)
- Unhurried servants are _____ for any missional opportunity.