

This Will Change the World

MK 1:1-15; ISA 40:3 + EXO 23:20 + MAL 3:1, 4:5; PS 2:7 + ISA 42:1; ISA 32:15; 44:3; EZK 11:19; 36:26-27; 37:14; JOE 2:28-29

INTRODUCTION:

Celebration of events that shaped history

✪ The _____ is worthy of regular preaching, especially to believers.

1. This written account (MARK) describes the beginning of something radically _____. (1:1)
2. The gospel is the eternal plan of God to _____ his chosen people. (1:2-3)
3. John prepared _____ to meet the Messiah through the symbolic rite of water baptism. (1:4-8)
4. Jesus was baptized as a public confirmation of his _____ and the commencement of his _____. (1:9-11)
5. Jesus was tempted by Satan as a confirmation of his perfect obedience through _____. (1:12-13)
6. And so, Jesus began his significant public ministry in _____. (1:14-15)

CONCLUSION:

- _____ and _____ in the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. (for the forgiveness of your sins)
- Be _____ by immersion as a public declaration of your identification with the gospel.
- Be _____ with the Spirit to the task of evangelism.
- _____ the Messiah, your King, with obedience out of the wilderness.
- _____ with patience, purity and worship, for the glory of God and the spread of the gospel.