Psalms 84:1-2:

How lovely is your dwelling place,
Lord Almighty!
My soul yearns,
even faints,
for the courts of the Lord;
my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

OFFERTORY PRAYER, in unison,

We come to this time of giving each week and operate automatically. Let us pause and think as we offer our prayer this day: As we search for our offering through pocket and purse, so let us search in the corners of our lives for a lonely soul in need of a touch of kindness. As our gifts pass through our hands, let us be reminded to use our hands to help another.

As our offertory song passes through our lips, let us remember to speak kindly instead of sharply. As we watch our money being collected, let us be mindful of using our time wisely to appreciate vistas which nourish our souls.

As we hear the words of our prayer, let us be aware of those around us with burdens too heavy to speak of.

We give these gifts with our whole selves, O God, in gratitude for all you have given us. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP, responsively
L: May the Lord be with you,
C: And also with you.
L: How lovely is the dwelling place of God, the Lord of all.
C: My soul longs to be at home with God, to sing with joy in honor of the Creator.
L: We are blessed to be part of God’s household, belonging to God’s family.
C: We lean on God for strength; our hearts are the place of worship and praise.
L: A day with God is better than a thousand elsewhere.
C: I would rather be a servant in God’s house than the guest of honor in the world’s palaces.
L: For in God is light and life. God protects and defends and bestows gifts with generosity.
C: Our faith is in the Lord. Blessed are we, the people and family of God! Amen.
