DOXOLOGY

OFFERTORY PRAYER, in unison,
Gracious God, we thank you for your abundant gifts, including the very breath in our lungs and the resources we steward. We acknowledge that all we have comes from you. Like the people of Babel, we are prone to seek our own glory and build our own towers of self-importance. Forgive us for the times we have sought to exalt ourselves rather than your name. As we offer these gifts, remind us of your sovereignty and your desire for unity and understanding among all people. Help us to be instruments of your peace and agents of reconciliation, working towards your purposes rather than our own. May these offerings be a testament to your grace and a step towards the unity you envision for your world. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen."

CALL TO WORSHIP, responsively
L: May the Lord be with you,
C: And also with you.
L: We gather to worship God, who is high and lifted up.
C: We humble ourselves before our Creator, acknowledging the need for grace.
L: While humanity sought to build a tower to the heavens, God demonstrated power.
C: Worship the God whose plans prevail over all human ambition.
L: Though the scattering at Babel brought division, unity is found in Christ.
C: Worship the One who brings hope after Babel, uniting people of every nation and language. Amen
