As Fall Approaches...

Everyone seems ready for fall—and I understand why. The smell of pumpkin candles, planning the Thanksgiving menu, and gathering with family at Christmas are wonderful things to look forward to.

But in the midst of all the wonderful things ahead, it's easy for our schedules to become so full that we leave little time for God.

Perhaps this fall, amid the busyness and beauty of the season, we can choose to be still, make room for Him, and remember what matters most.

As life prepares to speed up, can we intentionally slow down and make room to be attentive to the presence of God?

"Be still, and know that I am God." — Psalm 46:10
