Further Reflection on 11/30

1. What is the most despair you have ever felt? What is the most hope you have ever had?
2. Read Matthew 24:36-44
3. What jumps out to you from the text?
4. Why do you think Christians have been fixated on trying to find out when Jesus will return, even though he makes clear that no one can know? (verse 36)
5. Thinking about the story of Noah and what Jesus says about one being left and one being taken, why does it make more sense that the one left is the one who is righteous?
6. How should you understand the call to "keep watch" and "be ready" in your everyday life? (verses 42-44)
7. Why is God coming, in flesh, as Jesus and promising to come again something that should fill us with hope?
8. This week ask God to help reveal any area of your life in which you are living "not ready"? Then ask him to help that area of life to be transformed by the work of His Spirit
