Further Reflection on 12/21

1. When is a moment someone showed you extravagant love? When have you shown someone extravagant love?
2. Read Matthew 1:18-25
3. What jumps out to you from the text?
4. When you read about Joseph and his response to the situation what does that tell you about his character?
5. Joseph models deep love for Mary even when he thinks he has been wronged. Have you ever chosen a path of love when choosing a different path would have been easier?
6. Joseph was to give Jesus his name and to help raise him towards his calling. How might we embrace that as parents? Or as people who invest in the lives of others who we are not parents of?
7. Joseph had great trust in God even though what he was asked to do seems impossible and would have led to gossip and suggestions behind his back. How can you learn from Joseph in that way?
8. This week ask God to help you to love others when they deserve and especially when they do not deserve it.
