Extravagant Love

VALUES

Further Reflection 2/15

1. What's one practical way someone showed you love recently? When you hear the phrase "extravagant love," what comes to mind?
2. The sermon emphasized that God's love is not based on performance, behavior, or worthiness. What is hardest for you to believe about that?
3. How might truly believing that you are deeply loved by God change the way you see yourself this week? How might it change your outlook about life?
4. The sermon said extravagant love is both an identity (being loved by God) and a calling (loving others). Which of those comes more naturally to you? Which feels harder?
5. Jesus expands the definition of "neighbor" to include people who are different, uncomfortable, or even opposed to us. What boundaries does that stretch in your own life?
6. What is one tangible way you can show love this week—at home, work, school, or in your neighborhood?
7. Is there someone you need to forgive, listen to, pray for, or serve as an act of love?
8. Take a moment to silently reflect: Where do you need to receive God's love more deeply? Where is God inviting you to give that love away?
