

Bible Reading Plan 2026

July 2026

The books of 1 and 2 Kings (which were originally one book) give us a glimpse of the line of kings that rule after Solomon. Unfortunately, very few of these follow after God and the kingdom eventually splits into Judah and Israel. During this time, however, two prominent prophets emerge, first Elijah then Elisha, who show God's miraculous power despite Israel's sin. War, bloodshed, and idolatry continue to plague Israel and the northern kingdom eventually falls to Assyria. Later on, two kings in particular, Hezekiah and Josiah, cast a glimmer of hope on Judah but even the reforms that are made are not enough to save the southern kingdom as it later falls as well. As God's people, we are called to be lights in the midst of a dark world, no matter how bad things get. We reflect the "Father of lights" by doing good works so people may "glorify our Father in Heaven."
