Power

A large crowd of his disciples was there and a great number of people from all over Judea, from Jerusalem, and from the coastal region around Tyre and Sidon, 18 who had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. Those troubled by impure spirits were cured, 19 and the people all tried to touch him, because power was coming from him and healing them all.

Luke 6:17-19

As some of you may be aware, I had shoulder surgery last week. Just a small rotator cuff repair and some cleanup of arthritis, bone spurs, and frayed tendons. Sounds pretty simple, right?? No big deal. Hahahahahaha!!! Not from where I'm sitting.

I have seldom felt less powerful. I do NOT like relying on others. This coming Sunday's scripture jumped off the page at me. How much I, we, the world needs to remember that power doesn't originate with us. Power comes from Him. In His perfect way and perfect plan and perfect timing, He pours the power that creates the universe on to us, His creation.

As I struggle with relying on others to prepare meals, clean the kitchen, do laundry, change out the ice in my amazing Polar shoulder icing machine, and all the other things I'm too weak to do,

I am reminded that God pours His power onto and into us every day. He gives us talents and skills that we use to worship Him, to care for His people in need, to care for the mundane administrative tasks of His church. He listens to us and answers us and meets us where we are.

Let us never take His power and His love for granted, but rather let us look up and take notice of the source of all life. Let us stop and give thanks. The all powerful creator of everything loves us.

Amen.
