The funds are distributed as grants to dioceses throughout the country, supporting and helping to strengthen evangelization programs which otherwise would cease. The Diocese of Little Rock receives some of these grants each year which support certain ministries around the state who specialize in helping the Black and Indian communities.

SPEAKERS

Jim Towey was a trusted advisor and personal friend of Mother Teresa of Calcutta for twelve years and has been pro bono legal counsel to the Missionaries of Charity for 38 years. He headed the White House Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives under George W. Bush for four years. His career spans presidency of two Catholic colleges, a seven-year stint as a U.S. Senate staffer, and leadership of Florida's 40,000-employee human services agency. In 1996, with Mother Teresa's encouragement, he founded the nonprofit Aging with Dignity and created the Five Wishes advance directive, which has sold over 40 million copies.

After a brief career in technology during the dot-com boom, Father Matthew Spencer entered the seminary of the Oblates of St. Joseph in 2003. He received a Master of Divinity and a Master of Arts in Spiritual Theology in 2009 and was ordained to the priesthood later that year. He served his congregation in a number of roles and in 2019 was appointed Provincial Superior for his religious community in the United States, as well as Shrine Director of the Shrine of St. Joseph in Santa Cruz, Calif.

Father Norman McFall is a dedicated priest with over four decades of marriage to his wife, Laura, and they have one son, Samuel McFall. He currently serves as the pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Charleston, Ark., a role he took on in 2019, following his service as an associate pastor at Christ the King in Fort Smith, and a chaplain at Mercy Hospital in Fort Smith from 2016 to 2019.
